Dear Bill —

When I think of the way ways in which you make my life easier and more enjoyable, I lose count!

Thanks for all the work on the Chalet. You owe me a bill — remember Torricelli, my friend. Friendship is one thing — compliance with their ethics rules entirely different. I asked Bob P to talk to you about this so don't get P.O'd at him — it's just has to be done right.

Hope to see you soon.

My best

Ted
