1.1.A.-(DoD584) For your USN/USMC activity/installation, provide the following information in the table below. If any of the information requested is subject to change between now and the end of Fiscal Year (FY) 2005 due to known redesignations, realignments/closures, or other action, provide current and projected data and so annotate. Identify your Immediate Superior In Command (ISIC). If your ISIC is not your primary funding source, please identify that source in addition to the operational ISIC.

1.1.B.-(DoD585) If you are a USN/USMC activity/installation, are you a host command? A host command is an activity that provides facilities for its own functions and the functions of other (tenant) activities. A host has accountability for Class 1 (land), and/or Class 2 (buildings, structures, and utilities) property, regardless of occupancy. A Host Command may also be a tenant at other host activities.

1.1.F.-(DoD591) If you are a USN/USMC activity/installation, identify your relationship with other activities, not reported as a host/tenant, for which you provide support. The intent of this input is to capture the full breadth of the mission of your command and your customer/supplier relationships. Include in your answer any Government Owned/Contractor operated facilities for which you provide administrative oversight and control.
(Text)
The Naval Network and Space Operations Command (NNSOC) was formed in July 2002 by the merger of elements of Naval Space Command and Naval Network Operations Command. The command operates and maintains the Navy's space and global telecommunications systems services, directly supports warfighting operations and command and control of naval forces, and promotes innovative technological solutions to warfighting requirements. NNSOC enables naval forces to use information and space technologies and expertise to achieve and maintain knowledge superiority essential for dominating battle space.
