Dear [redacted],

I'm not certain what terms you are interested in. We literally have hundreds of guidance documents, each of which contain a glossary of terms. You can obtain guidance information from several sources within FDA. Here are some links that might be useful to you:

GCPP guidance web site: http://www.fda.gov/oc/gcp/guidance.html
CDER guidance web site: http://www.fda.gov/cder/guidance/index.htm
CDRH guidance web site: http://www.fda.gov/cdrh/guidance.html
CBER guidance web site: http://www.fda.gov/cber/guidelines.htm

If you provide more detail concerning terms that are of interest to you, I might be able to direct you to references that might be helpful.

Sincerely,

Patricia M. Beers Block
