Expedited Processing:

I believe a compelling need exists to warrant expedited processing because there is:

an urgency to inform the public concerning actual or alleged Federal Government activity exists (this option available ONLY for requesters primarily engaged in disseminating information)

Specific Justification for Expedited Processing:

¶ There is an urgency for two reasons:
1) On the part to inform the public about an actual or alleged Federal government activity, the information is requested by myself, a reporter for Dow Jones Newswires, who's primarily engaged in disseminating information to the public.
2) Because the nature of some of the issues involved - including climate change issues - could threaten the health and welfare of U.S. citizens and potential policy disclosure is in the interest of the public.
