WASHINGTON — The U.S. Department of Labor today announced a $2,047,844 grant to assist approximately 240 workers affected by the closure of Fleetwood Enterprises, Inc. manufacturing plants located in the rural communities of La Grande and Pendleton, Ore. "This grant will allow affected workers in Oregon to access the services and training necessary to allow them to enter occupations in growing regional industries," said Secretary of Labor Hilda L. Solis. Today's grant will be awarded to the Oregon Department of Community Colleges and Workforce Development. The grant will be operated by the Oregon Consortium, a private/public partnership established to revitalize the economies of Oregon's rural counties, and the Oregon Workforce Alliance/Training and Employment Consortium, a nonprofit organization providing career training and job placement services. Affected workers will have access to the full array of dislocated worker services. These may include skills assessment, basic skills training, individual career counseling and occupational skills training. Training will focus on industr Between Sept. 5 and Dec. 16, 2008, Fleetwood Enterprises, I	4/30/2009 11:45	unemployment;training;job placement;Oregon;
