Notice of Disclaimer

Due to the limitations, constraints, inaccuracies and incompleteness of government information and computer mapping data currently available to Banks Information Solutions, Inc., certain conventions have been utilized in preparing the locations of all federal, state and local agency sites residing in Banks Information Solutions, Inc.'s databases. All EPA NPL and state landfill sites are depicted by a rectangle approximating their location and size. The boundaries of the rectangles represent the eastern and western most longitudes; the northern and southern most latitudes. As such, the mapped areas may exceed the actual areas and do not represent the actual boundaries of these properties. All other sites are depicted by a point representing their approximate address location and make no attempt to represent the actual areas of the associated property. Actual boundaries and locations of individual properties can be found in the files residing at the agency responsible for such information.

Waiver of Liability

Although Banks Information Solutions, Inc. uses its best efforts to research the actual location of each site, Banks Information Solutions, Inc. does not and can not warrant the accuracy of these sites with regard to exact location and size. All authorized users of Banks Information Solutions, Inc.'s services proceeding are signifying an understanding of Banks Information Solutions, Inc.'s searching and mapping conventions, and agree to waive any and all liability claims associated with search and map results showing incomplete and or inaccurate site locations.

The following is an excerpt from ProQuest Information and Learning Company's Navigating the Sanborn Maps that you may find helpful.

Interpreting The Maps:

Dates As cities expanded, the Sanborn Company created new maps to document changes and update their records. The dates listed for each city tell you when new versions were created. The Sanborn Company reached a peak in production during the 1930s and reduced its efforts to isolated revisions in the 1960s.

Why do I see date ranges and multiple dates?

In the date list you will sometimes see a range of dates, such as 1894-1895. This range indicates the date the mapmakers began work on the map and the date of completion. In later years the Sanborn Company issued revisions that were intended to be literally pasted over the original map sheet. In these cases the last date refers to the date of the most recent pasted correction. Digital Sanborn Maps includes versions of maps with and without these pasted corrections. Our collection, originally microfilmed from the Library of Congress' collection, includes all maps submitted to the Library through copyright deposit in their original form and a set of maps including pasted corrections that was transferred to the Library from the Bureau of the Census. In some cases you may notice the same date listed twice for a city or listed once as a single year and a second time as the first date in a range. These two dates correspond to the two versions: one deposited to the Library by the Sanborn Company and one transferred from the Bureau of the Census, which may contain pasted corrections not on the other version. If a map is from the Bureau of the Census, an asterisk (*) will follow the date in the date selection box.

Volumes Bound volumes, each containing approximately 100 sheets, were created for large cities. In Digital Sanborn Maps if you select a map that is divided into volumes, you are automatically taken to the first volume in the set. A volume selection box appears to the right of the date box to allow you to view other volumes. The best way to navigate a volume is to find the key sheet which provides a birds-eye view of the city indicating which areas of the city are in which volumes. Volumes are specific to the date or date range you select in the date box. Dates or date ranges listed next to the volume number indicate how current the sheets are in that volume by letting you know the time period when that volume was created.

Sheets Each Sanborn Map is divided into numbered sheets, each approximately 65x55 cm. If you arranged all the sheets together on the floor, you would have a complete, but very large map! Because streets and buildings are located on various sheets, you need to use the key and index sheets to navigate.

Key and Index Sheets Maps with several sheets also include a key sheet and/or an index sheet. A key sheet provides a birds-eye view of the city. You will be able to see sheet numbers (or volume numbers) over different areas of the town. You can then browse the sheet thumbnails to pull up the sheet you are looking for. An index sheet provides an alphabetical list of streets (usually including block numbers) and prominent buildings, labeled "specials." The index refers you to the sheet number for that address or building.

KEY MAP FOR 1000 SERIES SHEET NUMBERS

-Note-
Numbers have been reserved for proposed pages, which will be made and inserted in the volume when territory develops.
When growth demands, certain sections now shown by pages on 100 ft. scale will be replaced by pages on 50 ft. scale, to which numbers have been allotted, for example, pages 1009 and 1014 will be replaced by 8 50 ft. scale sheets, carrying numbers 1007 and 1016 inclusive.

INTERVIEW FORMS

user must determine, in the exercise of the user's reasonable business judgment, the scope of such further inquiry.

5.8 Further Inquiry—Upon completing the transaction screen questionnaire, if the user concludes that further inquiry or action is needed (for example, consult with an environmental consultant, contractor, governmental authority, or perform additional governmental and/or historical records review), the user should proceed with such inquiry. (Note that if the user determines to proceed with a Phase I Environment Site Assessment, the user may apply the current Practice E 1527 or alternatively the provisions of EPA's regulation "Standards and Practices for All Appropriate Inquiries," 40 C.F.R. Part 312.)

5.9 Signature—The user and the preparer of the transaction screen questionnaire must complete and sign the questionnaire as provided at the end of the questionnaire.

6. Transaction Screen Questionnaire

6.1 Persons to Be Questioned—The following questions should be asked of (1) the current owner of the property, (2) any major occupant of the property or, if the property does not have any major occupants, at least 10 % of the occupants of the property, and (3) in addition to the current owner and the occupants identified in (2), any occupant likely to be using, treating, generating, storing, or disposing of hazardous substances or petroleum products on or from the property. A major occupant is any occupant using at least 40 % of the leasable area of the property or any anchor tenant when the property is a shopping center. In a multifamily property containing both residential and commercial uses, the preparer does not need to ask questions of the residential occupants. The preparer should ask each person to answer all questions to the best of the respondent's actual knowledge and in good faith. When completing the site visit column, the preparer should be sure to observe the property and any buildings and other structures on the property. The guide to this transaction screen questionnaire (see Sections 7-10) provides further details on the appropriate use of this questionnaire. (See Note 2.)

7. Guide to Transaction Screen Questionnaire

7.1 The following sets forth the guide to the transaction screen questionnaire. The guide accompanies the transaction screen questionnaire to assist the preparer in completing the questionnaire. Questions found in the transaction screen questionnaire are repeated in the guide.

7.2 If the preparer completing the transaction screen questionnaire is familiar with the guide from prior usage, the questionnaire may be completed without reference to the guide.

7.3 The site visit portion of the guide considers most of the same questions set forth in the guide to owner/occupant inquiry because the transaction screen process requires both questions of owners and occupants of the property and observations of the property by the preparer.

7.4 Prior transaction screen usage procedures are contained in the guide to owner/occupant inquiry and the guide to government records/historical sources inquiry. The information supplied in connection with the site visit portion of a prior transaction screen may be used for guidance, but may not be relied upon without determining through a new site visit whether any conditions that are material to potential environmental concerns in connection with the property have changed since the prior transaction screen. Therefore, the guide to the site visit does not contain any prior assessment procedures.

7.5 In performing the site visit portion of the transaction screen process, the preparer should visually and physically observe the property and any structure located on the property to the extent not obstructed by bodies of water, cliffs, adjacent buildings, or other impassable obstacles.

7.5.1 The periphery of the property should be visually and physically observed, as well as the periphery of all structures on the property, and the property should be viewed from all adjacent public thoroughfares. Any overgrown areas should be inspected, including roads or paths with no apparent outlet that should be visually and physically observed to their ends.

7.5.2 On the interior of structures on the property, accessible common areas expected to be used by building occupants or the public (such as lobbies, hallways, utility rooms, and recreation areas), a representative sample of owner and occupant spaces, and maintenance and repair areas, including boiler rooms, should be visually and physically observed. It is not necessary to look under floors, above ceilings, or behind walls.

7.5.3 After completing the site visit, the preparer of the transaction screen questionnaire may obtain "yes" answers that require the preparer once again to ask questions of the owner of the property or occupants of the property to satisfy the user that no further inquiry is necessary.

7.6 In addition to asking questions of the owner of the property and occupants of the property (Section 8) and visually and physically observing the property (Section 9), the user completing the transaction screen process should determine, either from governmental agencies or through commercial services providing government environmental records, whether certain known or suspected contaminated sites or activities involving the release of hazardous substances or petroleum products occur on or near the property. See Section 10.

7.6.1 These records may be obtained either directly from the government agencies or from commercial services that provide the records for a fee. Because of the numerous sources that user must determine, in the exercise of the user's reasonable business judgment, the scope of such further inquiry.

5.8 Further Inquiry—Upon completing the transaction screen questionnaire, if the user concludes that further inquiry or action is needed (for example, consult with an environmental consultant, contractor, governmental authority, or perform additional governmental and/or historical records review), the user should proceed with such inquiry. (Note that if the user determines to proceed with a Phase I Environment Site Assessment, the user may apply the current Practice E 1527 or alternatively the provisions of EPA's regulation "Standards and Practices for All Appropriate Inquiries," 40 C.F.R. Part 312.)

5.9 Signature—The user and the preparer of the transaction screen questionnaire must complete and sign the questionnaire as provided at the end of the questionnaire.

6. Transaction Screen Questionnaire

6.1 Persons to Be Questioned—The following questions should be asked of (1) the current owner of the property, (2) any major occupant of the property or, if the property does not have any major occupants, at least 10 % of the occupants of the property, and (3) in addition to the current owner and the occupants identified in (2), any occupant likely to be using, treating, generating, storing, or disposing of hazardous substances or petroleum products on or from the property. A major occupant is any occupant using at least 40 % of the leasable area of the property or any anchor tenant when the property is a shopping center. In a multifamily property containing both residential and commercial uses, the preparer does not need to ask questions of the residential occupants. The preparer should ask each person to answer all questions to the best of the respondent's actual knowledge and in good faith. When completing the site visit column, the preparer should be sure to observe the property and any buildings and other structures on the property. The guide to this transaction screen questionnaire (see Sections 7-10) provides further details on the appropriate use of this questionnaire. (See Note 2.)

7. Guide to Transaction Screen Questionnaire

7.1 The following sets forth the guide to the transaction screen questionnaire. The guide accompanies the transaction screen questionnaire to assist the preparer in completing the questionnaire. Questions found in the transaction screen questionnaire are repeated in the guide.

7.2 If the preparer completing the transaction screen questionnaire is familiar with the guide from prior usage, the questionnaire may be completed without reference to the guide.

7.3 The site visit portion of the guide considers most of the same questions set forth in the guide to owner/occupant inquiry because the transaction screen process requires both questions of owners and occupants of the property and observations of the property by the preparer.

7.4 Prior transaction screen usage procedures are contained in the guide to owner/occupant inquiry and the guide to government records/historical sources inquiry. The information supplied in connection with the site visit portion of a prior transaction screen may be used for guidance, but may not be relied upon without determining through a new site visit whether any conditions that are material to potential environmental concerns in connection with the property have changed since the prior transaction screen. Therefore, the guide to the site visit does not contain any prior assessment procedures.

7.5 In performing the site visit portion of the transaction screen process, the preparer should visually and physically observe the property and any structure located on the property to the extent not obstructed by bodies of water, cliffs, adjacent buildings, or other impassable obstacles.

7.5.1 The periphery of the property should be visually and physically observed, as well as the periphery of all structures on the property, and the property should be viewed from all adjacent public thoroughfares. Any overgrown areas should be inspected, including roads or paths with no apparent outlet that should be visually and physically observed to their ends.

7.5.2 On the interior of structures on the property, accessible common areas expected to be used by building occupants or the public (such as lobbies, hallways, utility rooms, and recreation areas), a representative sample of owner and occupant spaces, and maintenance and repair areas, including boiler rooms, should be visually and physically observed. It is not necessary to look under floors, above ceilings, or behind walls.

7.5.3 After completing the site visit, the preparer of the transaction screen questionnaire may obtain "yes" answers that require the preparer once again to ask questions of the owner of the property or occupants of the property to satisfy the user that no further inquiry is necessary.

7.6 In addition to asking questions of the owner of the property and occupants of the property (Section 8) and visually and physically observing the property (Section 9), the user completing the transaction screen process should determine, either from governmental agencies or through commercial services providing government environmental records, whether certain known or suspected contaminated sites or activities involving the release of hazardous substances or petroleum products occur on or near the property. See Section 10.

7.6.1 These records may be obtained either directly from the government agencies or from commercial services that provide the records for a fee. Because of the numerous sources that user must determine, in the exercise of the user's reasonable business judgment, the scope of such further inquiry.

5.8 Further Inquiry—Upon completing the transaction screen questionnaire, if the user concludes that further inquiry or action is needed (for example, consult with an environmental consultant, contractor, governmental authority, or perform additional governmental and/or historical records review), the user should proceed with such inquiry. (Note that if the user determines to proceed with a Phase I Environment Site Assessment, the user may apply the current Practice E 1527 or alternatively the provisions of EPA's regulation "Standards and Practices for All Appropriate Inquiries," 40 C.F.R. Part 312.)

5.9 Signature—The user and the preparer of the transaction screen questionnaire must complete and sign the questionnaire as provided at the end of the questionnaire.

6. Transaction Screen Questionnaire

6.1 Persons to Be Questioned—The following questions should be asked of (1) the current owner of the property, (2) any major occupant of the property or, if the property does not have any major occupants, at least 10 % of the occupants of the property, and (3) in addition to the current owner and the occupants identified in (2), any occupant likely to be using, treating, generating, storing, or disposing of hazardous substances or petroleum products on or from the property. A major occupant is any occupant using at least 40 % of the leasable area of the property or any anchor tenant when the property is a shopping center. In a multifamily property containing both residential and commercial uses, the preparer does not need to ask questions of the residential occupants. The preparer should ask each person to answer all questions to the best of the respondent's actual knowledge and in good faith. When completing the site visit column, the preparer should be sure to observe the property and any buildings and other structures on the property. The guide to this transaction screen questionnaire (see Sections 7-10) provides further details on the appropriate use of this questionnaire. (See Note 2.)
