This permanent RCRA ID number is site-specific and is to be used for the regulated waste activity at the above site only. If there are any changes to the information your installation submitted on the EPA Notification of Regulated Waste Activity (Form 8700-12), you are required to notify the EPA by submitting a new Form 8700-12. Each section of the new Form 8700-12 must be filled out completely.

If your installation has a change of location, then note the following: do not use the RCRA ID number assigned to this location to manifest RCRA waste at the new location. Before conducting regulated waste activity at the new location, you must notify the EPA by submitting a Form 8700-12 for the new location. Your new location will be assigned a RCRA ID number specific to that location.

If in the future your installation's regulated waste activity at this location ceases because of closure or change of location, then submit a letter (deactivation letter) requesting deactivation of the RCRA ID number assigned to this location. The deactivation letter should be on company letterhead. Be sure to specify the following information regarding this location: the RCRA ID number to be deactivated, name of installation, location or address of installation, the date that regulated waste activity ceased, and an original ink signature (a deactivation letter with a photocopied or faxed signature will not be accepted).

If you have any questions, or need to submit a new Form 8700-12 or a deactivation letter, or if you need to obtain a current version of the Form 8700-12, then please contact:
