From:	Rob Jorgensen
To:	agencypro2008@fec.gov
Subject:	RE: Federal Election Commission Seeks Comment on its Activities and Procedures
Date:	01/16/2009 09:10 AM

Suggestions for enforcement of your campaign spending laws. First if candidates go past the spending limits the law mandates they should be diqualified for office as this sets the tone for their adminstration. They are probaly not going to follow other laws if they can't stick to campaign laws. Imposing fines are not effective at all! Money is not a obstacle for corrupt candidates. Stick to principals and appeal to the press and the FBI (DOJ) for enforcement. Clearly Bush is corrupt and is passing the Presidency to Obama (harvard lawyer from Chicago) Fighting corruption is not easy but that is why we have the Federal Election Commision. GOD BLESS AMERICA Rob Jorgensen

---

From: agencypro2008@fec.gov
To: rcjorgensen@msn.com
Subject: RE: Federal Election Commission Seeks Comment on its Activities and Procedures
Date: Fri, 9 Jan 2009 17:46:26 -0500

Dear Mr. Jorgensen

Thank you for your written comments, which are part of the public record that the Commission will consider in revising its policies and procedures.

Unfortunately, we have a limited amount of time at the hearing on January 14, 2009, and will not be able to accommodate your request to testify.

Mark Shonkwiler
Assistant General Counsel
Federal Election Commission

Windows Live™ Hotmail®: Chat. Store. Share. Do more with mail. Check it out.