From:	mary taylor-shelby
To:	agencypro2008@fec.gov
Subject:	RE: FEC Extends Deadline to February 18, 2009 for Written Comment on its Policies, Practices and Procedures
Date:	02/15/2009 05:47 PM

The Federal Election Commission, need a complete overhaul it violates the United States Constitution by way of acting under-color of law it should be more about the business of making sure the Unitied States Elections is fair and the election results/ returns are accurate also making sure public media is fairly distributed to all candidates.

Thank You,

Mary D. Wright, aka
Mary Taylor-Shelby

From: info@fec.gov
To: marydwright@live.com
Subject: FEC Extends Deadline to February 18, 2009 for Written Comment on its Policies, Practices and Procedures
Date: Tue, 10 Feb 2009 10:44:44 -0500

The Federal Election Commission (FEC) is conducting a broad ranging proceeding on the Commission's policies, practices and procedures. The focus of the proceeding is the most sweeping re-examination in the FEC's over 30-year history on how the Commission might improve transparency, fairness and efficiency regarding compliance, enforcement, public disclosure, advisory opinions and other matters.

On December 8, 2008 the Commission published a Notice of Public Hearing in the Federal Register and invited written comments by January 5, 2009. The Commission received much constructive feedback through numerous written comments submitted in response to the questions contained in the Notice of Hearing and, on January 14-15, 2009, the Commission conducted a hearing at which 15 witnesses made many helpful recommendations.

Although the original deadline for submission of written comments was January 5, 2009, because the original written comment period spanned over the Holiday season, the Commission announced at the hearing that it was extending the deadline for written comments until February 18, 2009. Accordingly, the Commission extends an invitation to you to submit written comments, regardless of whether or not you have previously submitted comments in this proceeding.

Copies of the written comments that the Commission has received so far, as well as a transcript of the January 14-15 hearing, may be reviewed on the Commission's website at http://www.fec.gov/law/policy/enforcement/publichearing011409.shtml.

Written comments may be submitted by e-mail to agencypro2008@fec.gov. Detailed instructions for submitting comments are provided in the attached Federal Register announcements and on the Commission's website.

Windows Live™: E-mail. Chat. Share. Get more ways to connect. Check it out.