16. REMARKS

BLOCKS 10, 11, 12 and 13: The contractor shall deliver the initial draft Authorized Stockage List (ASL) 90 days after contract award. The Government will review draft in accordance with requirements specified in GEIA-STD 007. The Government will provide comments no later than 15 days after receipt. The contractor shall submit corrected initial ASL 5 working days after receipt of Government comments.

The contractor shall deliver the updated CSL 21 days prior to Logistics Demonstration (LD) and 21 days prior to Limited User Test (LUT).

The Government will provide comments from the Product Qualification Test (PQT), LD and LUT within 7 days of the completion of each test event. The contractor shall incorporate Government comments within 7 days of receipt of Government comments.

The final document will be submitted 21 days after the completion of LUT, incorporating all Government comments.

MIL-PRF-49506, PERFORMANCE SPECIFICATION: LOGISTICS MANAGEMENT INFORMATION (11 NOV 1996) [S/S BY GEIA-STD-0007]., This specification describes information required by the Government to perform acquisition logistics management functions. The principle focus of this specification is on providing the DOD with a contractual method for acquiring support and support-related engineering and logistics data from contractors. The DOD uses this data in-house in existing DOD materiel management processes such as those for initial provisioning, cataloging, and item management. Data products intended primarily for in-house use by the contractor during his/her own design process or those developed internally by the DOD are beyond the scope of this document. Depending on specific program requirements, this information may be in the form of summary reports, a set of specific data products, or both. This specification identifies content requirements for information summaries and format requirement for data products. It may be used on all system/end item acquisition programs. The contractor may, and is encouraged to, suggest alternative means of satisfying requirements of this specification to make information more readily avail

BLOCK 14: E-mail delivery per e-mail addresses on BEB IPT List.
