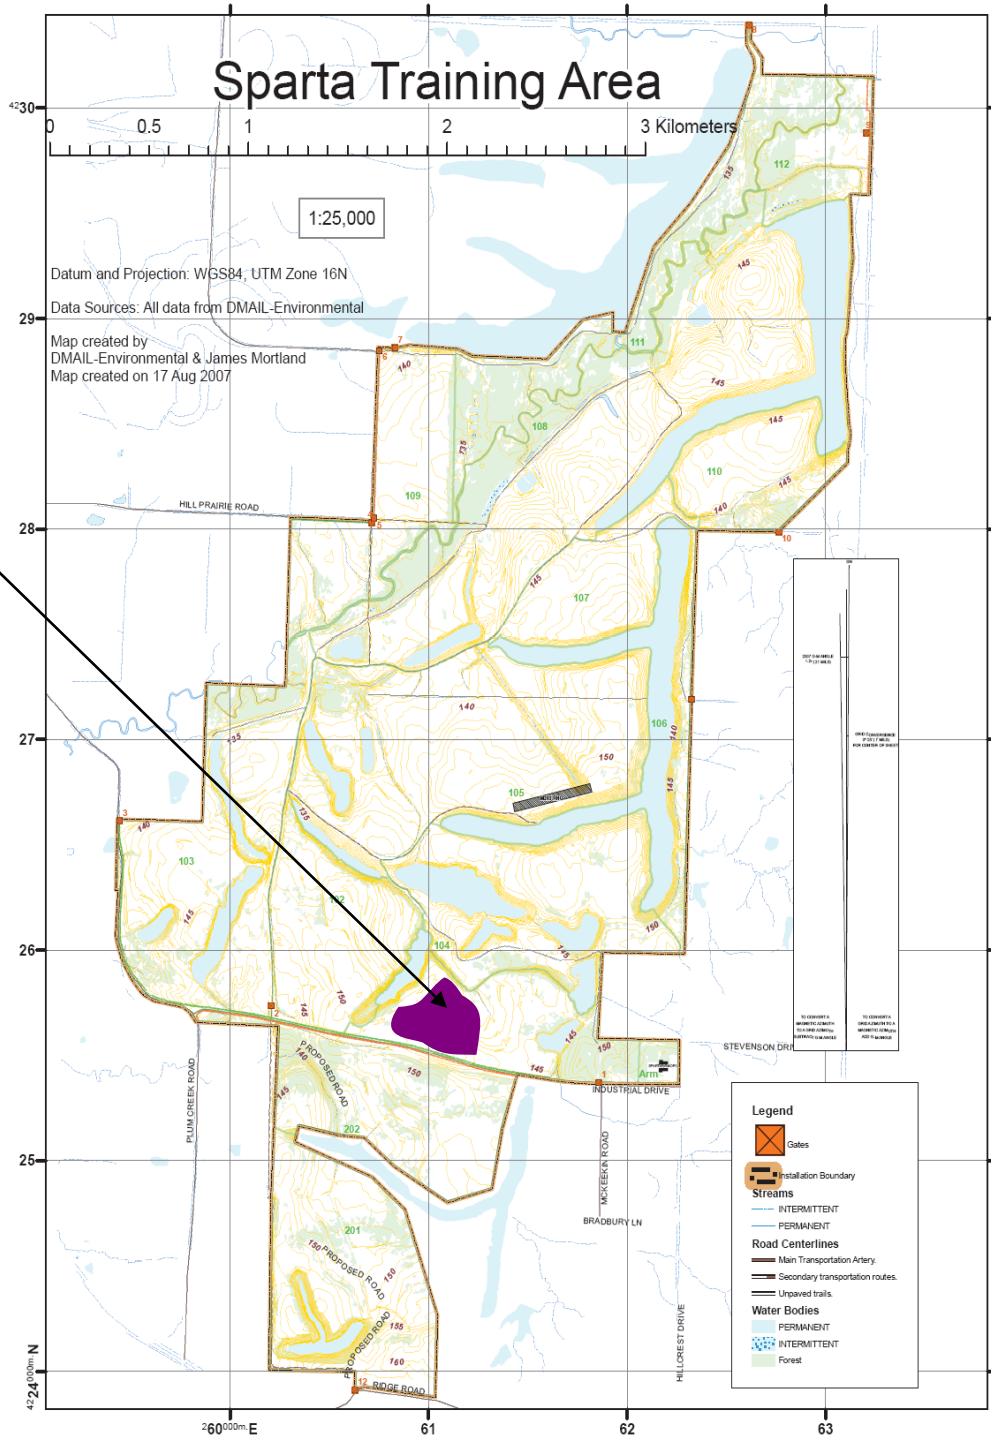
Engineer Training Area

Description:


STA has 50 acres designated for engineer training requiring earth movement such as the construction of vehicle fighting positions. Additionally, there are areas available for various engineer operations including road construction/repair, runway construction, construction and clearing of obstacles etc.