

Date: 09-10-2013 8:35 am
From: Shaperanch [mailto:shaperanch@shaperanch.com]
To: Veronica Larson
Subject: Disposal well comments

Dear Veronica,

It is my opinion that it is imperative for the Railroad Commission to notify Groundwater Conservation Districts when there is a proposed drilling of a disposal well in their district. This notification should be done by mail directly to the office of the local GCD.

I also believe that the radius of inspection around new disposal wells should be increased to ½ mile from the present 1/4 mile.

Hugh Fitzsimons, Director Wintergarden Groundwater Conservation District.