Rev. 9/13/2012

Procedure For People Who Have Moved From One Texas County To Another Texas County

A. Limited Ballot. [Sec. 112.001]

- 1. The Election Code authorizes voting a limited ballot after changing county of residence.
- 2. A person voting a limited ballot under this chapter is entitled to vote only on each office or measure to be voted in a territorial unit (state or district) of which the person was a resident both before changing their county of residence and after the change.

B. Eligibility. [Sec. 112.002]

- 1. After changing residence to another county, a person is eligible to vote a limited ballot by personal appearance or by mail if:
- a. the person would have been eligible to vote in the county of former residence on election day if still residing in that county; and
- b. the person is registered to vote in the county of former residence at the time the person
 - 1. offers to vote in the county of new residence; or
 - 2. submitted a voter registration application in the county of new residence; and

- c. a voter registration for the person in the county of new residence is not effective on or before election day.
- 2 A person is not eligible to vote a limited ballot by mail unless, in addition to satisfying the eligibility requirements prescribed above, the person is eligible to vote early by mail under the standard early by mail rules.

C. Submitting Request for Mail Ballot. [Sec. 112.005]

An application for a limited ballot to be voted by mail under this chapter must be submitted to the early voting clerk serving the election precinct in which the applicant currently resides.

D. Place for Voting by Personal Appearance. [Sec. 112.006]

A person may vote a limited ballot by personal appearance only at the main early voting polling place.

E. Verifying Registration Status of Applicant for Ballot. [Sec. 112.007]

- 1. Before providing a limited ballot to the applicant, the early voting clerk must verify, if possible, that the applicant does not have an effective voter registration in the county of new residence.
- 2. If the person has applied in the county of new residence for a voter registration that will be effective on or before Election Day, the limited ballot application must be rejected.

F. Notification to Voter Registrar. [Sec. 112.012]

Not later than the 30th day after receipt of an application for a limited ballot, the early voting clerk must notify the voter registrar of the voter's former county of residence that the voter has applied for a limited ballot.

Procedure For Voters Moving From Texas To Another State

Voting Presidential Ballot by Former Resident.

A. "Presidential Ballot." [Sec. 113.001]

The Election Code authorizes voting a presidential ballot for president and vice-president under certain circumstances.

SUM: the procedure helps former residents of Texas who have recently moved to another state but did not register in time to vote in the new state.

B. Eligibility. [Sec. 113.002]

A former resident is eligible to vote a presidential ballot under this chapter by personal appearance or by mail if the former resident:

- 1. is domiciled in another state;
- 2. was registered to vote in Texas at the time the former resident ceased to be a resident;
- 3. would be eligible for registration to vote in this state if a resident; and
- 4. on presidential election day, will not have resided in the state of present domicile for more than 30 days and is not eligible to vote in the presidential election in that state.
