

DIRECTOR MARK MYERS' VISIT JUNE 3, 2008

Director Myers' introduction breakfast with University of Arizona President Robert Shelton, Acting Deputy Regional Executive for Southwest Area Steven Frenzel, and other University of Arizona Staff.

Director Myers addressing the Arizona Science Center in an All Hands Meeting; main topics of discussion were the USGS Science Strategies, organizational structure, interdisciplinary collaboration and budget forecasts.

Members of the Arizona Science Center in Director Myers' All Hands meeting.

Director Myers receives a briefing from Associate Director James Leenhouts on work the Arizona Water Science Center is doing that meets the needs of the "Water for America" Science Strategy Initiative. Present from left to right are Kyle Blasch, Steve Frenzel, Director Mark Myers, Fred Tillman, Jim Leenhouts, and Don Pool.

Mark Gettings of the Western Minerals Resources Team in Tucson briefs Director Myers on techniques used to assess concealed mineral resources.