HONORING THE RETURNING I&E COMMITTEE MEMBERS

The February 2007 I&E Committee newsletter featured articles on our two new I&E Committee members, David Kotz, Peace Corps IG, and Jon Rymer, Federal Deposit and Insurance Corporation (FDIC) IG. We welcome them again to the I&E Committee and look forward to working with them in 2007. However, we would also like to thank the returning IGs who are committed to the mission and activities of the I&E Committee. We thank you and look forward to your continued service.

~ Johnnie Frazier
I&E Committee Chair

Christine C. Boesz assumed the position of IG of the National Science Foundation (NSF) in January 2000. IG Boesz reports directly to the National Science Board and the Congress.

Prior to joining NSF OIG, IG Boesz served as Head of Regulatory Accountability at Aetna U.S. Health-care. While there, she was responsible for establishing and maintaining a compliance program for Medicare legislative and regulatory activities. This position followed an 18-year career with the Health Care Financing Administration, where she was the Director of Operations and Oversight in the Office of Managed Care.

IG Boesz received her Doctorate in Public Health from the University of Michigan School of Public Health.

Carl A. Clinefelter, was announced as the new Farm Credit Administration (FCA) IG on July 7, 2005, by the FCA Board. Since joining FCA in 1980, Mr.

Clinefelter has served the agency in many capacities, including regional supervisory officer in the former Office of Supervision; as an enforcement examiner in the former Enforcement Division; and as Acting Director for the former Office of Special Supervision and Corporate Affairs.

Mr. Clinefelter came to FCA after serving as an assistant vice president at the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank of New Orleans.

Glenn A. Fine was confirmed IG of the Department of Justice in December 2000. He joined the Justice OIG in 1995 as Special Counsel to the IG and later became Director of the OIG’s Special Investigations and Review Unit.

Prior to joining Justice OIG, Mr. Fine was an attorney specializing in labor and employment law.

Earlier he served as an Assistant U.S. Attorney in the Washington, D.C. U.S. Attorney’s Office, where he prosecuted more than 35 criminal jury trials.

IG Fine graduated from Harvard College and Law School and also obtained degrees from Oxford University.

Johnnie E. Frazier was sworn in July 1999 as IG of the Commerce Department. IG Frazier assumed the position after more than three decades of public service.

IG Frazier chairs the Inspection and Evaluation Committee. He is also a graduate of Howard and George Washington Universities.

Howard J. Krongard, who assumed the State IG post in May 2005, has over 23 years’ experience as counsel to Big 8 and Big 6 accounting firms. Mr. Krongard comes to State after serving as counsel in an international law firm from 1996 to 2005. Prior to this position, he was general counsel of Deloitte & Touche.

A graduate of Princeton University and Harvard Law School, with honors, Mr. Krongard was awarded a fellowship to attend Cambridge University in England.

Daniel R. Levinson was appointed inspector general of the Department of Health and Human Services in 2004. His office provides oversight to more than 300 programs in the department.

IG Levinson’s federal career spans four decades, including service as General Counsel of the Consumer Product Safety

Commission, Chairman of the Merit Systems Protection Board, and IG of the General Services Administration.

He is a graduate of the University of Southern California and the Georgetown University Law Center.

George J. Opfer assumed the responsibility of IG for the Department of Veteran Affairs (VA) in November 2005. Mr.

Opfer came to VA after serving as the Deputy IG for the Department of Labor. Before joining Labor, Mr. Opfer held the position of IG for the Federal Emergency Management Agency, where he served the agency for 8 years.

Mr. Opfer attended St. John’s University in New York, N.Y., and began his federal career as an agent with the U.S. Secret Service in its New York field office.

IGS TO MEET IN HISTORIC GETTYSBURG

The PCIE/ECIE is holding its annual retreat in Gettysburg, Pennsylvania April 14-18, 2007. This year’s theme “Making a Positive Difference in a Challenging World “ will feature David Walker from the Government Accountability Office.
