

The Open World Leadership Center and George Mason University's Terrorism, Transnational Crime and Corruption Center (TraCCC)
PRESENT

Rescuing Lives, Restoring Hope: Assisting Human Trafficking Victims in the Russian Federation

Wednesday, 10 September 2008, 10am- 12pm
James Madison Memorial Building, Library of Congress
Dining Room C
101 Independence Avenue S.E.
Washington DC 20540

A Panel Discussion Featuring:

Marina Erlikh

Psychologist, Syostri (an NGO dedicated to assisting victims of sexual violence), Moscow

Svetlana Goncharova

Psychologist, "Guardian Angel" Women's Crisis Center, Vladivostok

Eduard Perepelkin

Director, "Oratorium" Crisis Center for Teens and Youth, Astrakhan

Tamara Petrova

Executive Director, Regional Resource Center for Prevention of Violence, Rostov

Ksenia Tuzova

Staff Lawyer, "Fatima" Crisis Center, Kazan

This event is free and open to the public but seating is limited and reservations are suggested.
For more information or to reserve a seat, please contact TraCCC at tracc@gmu.edu or 703-993-9757.