Privacy Act of 1974; Systems of Records;
Notice

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

[Notice 2007–28]

Privacy Act of 1974; Systems of RecordsAGENCY: Federal Election Commission.ACTION: Notice of New and Revised Systems of Records.

SUMMARY: In accordance with the Privacy Act of 1974, as amended, 5 U.S.C. 552a, the Federal Election Commission (“the FEC” or “the Commission” or “the agency”) is publishing for comment new and revised systems of records that are maintained by the Commission. These systems have been proposed or revised as a result of a reevaluation of the manner in which the Commission maintains records. The Commission is deleting an obsolete system of records entitled FEC 4, Mailing Lists, and a duplicative system of records entitled FEC 5, Personnel Records. The four new proposed systems of records that have been added are entitled: FEC 13, Travel Records of Employees; FEC 14, Alternative Dispute Resolution Program; FEC 15, Freedom of Information Act System; and FEC 16, HSPD–12: Identity Management, Personnel Security, Physical and Logical Access Files. With the exception of FEC 12, all other systems have been revised to incorporate administrative changes that have taken place since the last complete publication of FEC systems of records on December 15, 1997.

DATES: Comments on the establishment of the new systems of records, as well as the revisions to existing records systems, must be received no later than February 1, 2008. The new systems of records and revisions will be effective February 11, 2008 unless the Commission receives comments that would result in a contrary determination.

ADDRESSES: Comments should be addressed in writing to Lawrence L. Calvert, Acting Co-Chief Privacy Officer, Federal Election Commission, 999 E Street, NW., Washington, DC 20463, by close of business on February 1, 2008. Comments may also be sent via electronic mail to Privacy@fec.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Privacy Act regulates the collection, maintenance, use and dissemination of information about individuals by Federal agencies. Its basic rule generally prohibits the disclosure of any individual’s “record,” if contained in a “system of records” to a third party without the individual’s consent. See 5 U.S.C. 552a(b). A “system of records” is any group of records in which records can be retrieved by the individual’s name, or by a unique identifier assigned to the individual. See 5 U.S.C. 552a(a)(5).

There are a number of exceptions to the basic rule of nondisclosure without consent. Among them is an exception that permits nonconsensual disclosure for a “routine use”—that is, a use compatible with the purposes for which the record was collected. 5 U.S.C. 552a(b)(3). Individuals are also, again with exceptions, guaranteed access to their records, and the right to request amendment of their records if they believe the records are inaccurate. See generally 5 U.S.C. 552a(d).

To facilitate these provisions, each agency must periodically review its systems of records and publish a notice in the Federal Register containing certain specified information about them. The FEC has undertaken and completed such a review. As a result of this review, the Commission determined that its Privacy Act notices required extensive modifications to more accurately describe the records systems currently maintained by the Commission. Rather than making numerous, piecemeal revisions, the Commission decided to draft and republish updated notices for all of its Privacy Act systems of records. By doing so, the Commission hopes to make these notices as clear and accessible to the public as possible.

The public is advised that the “routine uses” described herein are not the exclusive list of circumstances in which the Commission may share Privacy Act protected information with a third party without the consent of the individual to whom the records pertain. The “routine use” exception, 5 U.S.C. 552a(b)(3), is only one of twelve specific exceptions to the rule of nondisclosure contained within the Privacy Act itself—one of the most important of which is information for which disclosure is required pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552. See 5 U.S.C. 552a(b)(2). Another exception to the rule of nondisclosure is disclosure to either House of Congress, or a committee of the Congress when the inquiry concerns a matter within the committee’s jurisdiction. See 5 U.S.C. 552a(b)(9). The proposed changes to the FEC’s routine uses do not limit or alter these other exceptions. Conversely, the inclusion of a “routine use” in this notice does not necessarily mean that information will always be disclosed under all circumstances described as a “routine use.” For instance, records in FEC 3, Compliance Actions, may not be disclosed even pursuant to a routine use if disclosure is prohibited by 2 U.S.C. 437g(a)(12) (covering enforcement matters still open) or 2 U.S.C. 437g(a)(4) (covering information derived from conciliation attempts in any matter). Similarly, records in FEC 12, Inspector General Investigative Files, may not be disclosed if a matter is pending.

The proposed changes to the system entitled FEC 1, Advisory Opinions Process include: Revising the “System name,” adding data elements “Security classification,” “Purpose(s),” “Disclosure to consumer reporting agencies,” and “Exemptions claimed for the system” to comply with Office of Management and Budget (OMB) and Federal Register requirements; expanding the “Categories of individuals covered by the system” and “Record source categories;” adding routine uses Nos. 3 through 13; updating “Storage,” “Retrievability,” “Safeguards,” “Retention and disposal,” and “System manager(s) and address;” clarifying “Notification procedure,” “Record access procedures,” and “Contesting record procedures;” and technical revisions.

The proposed changes to the system entitled FEC 2, Audits and Investigations include: Adding data elements “Security classification,” “Purpose(s),” “Disclosure to consumer reporting agencies,” and “Exemptions claimed for the system” to comply with OMB and Federal Register requirements; expanding the “Categories of individuals covered by the system” and “Record source categories;” clarifying the “Categories of records in the system;” adding routine uses Nos. 3 through 9; updating “Storage,” “Retrievability,” “Safeguards,” and “Retention and disposal;” clarifying “Notification procedure;” “Record access procedures;” and “Contesting record procedures;” and technical revisions.

The proposed changes to the system entitled FEC 3, Compliance Actions include: Adding data elements “Security classification,” “Purpose(s),” and “Disclosure to consumer reporting agencies;” expanding the “Categories of individuals covered by the system” and “Categories of records in the system;” adding routine uses Nos. 3 through 15; updating “Storage,” “Retrievability,” “Safeguards,” “Retention and disposal,” and “System manager(s) and address;” clarifying “Notification procedure,” “Record access procedures,” and “Contesting record procedures;” and technical revisions.

The FEC is deleting the system entitled FEC 4, Mailing Lists, because the system of records is no longer searchable by name or other unique identifier, and thus, does not require a System of Records Notice. The FEC is also deleting FEC 5, Personnel Records, because the system is covered by Office of Personnel Management government-wide systems of records (OPM/GOVT-1, 2, 3, 5 and 10).

The proposed changes to the system entitled FEC 6, Candidate Reports and Designations include: Adding data elements "Security classification," "Purpose(s)," "Disclosure to consumer reporting agencies," and "Exemptions claimed for the system" to comply with OMB and Federal Register requirements; expanding "Categories of individuals covered by the system;" clarifying "Categories of records in the system;" deleting routine uses; updating "System location," "Storage," "Retrievability," "Safeguards," "Retention and disposal," and "System manager(s) and address;" clarifying "Notification procedure," "Record access procedures," "Contesting record procedures;" and "Record source categories;" and technical revisions.

The proposed changes to the system entitled FEC 7, Certification for Primary Matching Funds and General Elections Campaign Funds include: Adding data elements "Security classification," "Purpose(s)," "Disclosure to consumer reporting agencies," and "Exemptions claimed for the system;" updating "System location;" expanding "Categories of individuals covered by the system;" clarifying "Categories of records in the system;" adding routine uses Nos. 3 through 10; updating "Storage," "Retrievability," "Safeguards," "Retention and disposal," and "System manager(s) and address;" clarifying "Notification procedure," "Record access procedures," and "Contesting record procedures;" and technical revisions.

The proposed changes to the system entitled FEC 8, Payroll Records include: Adding data elements "Security classification," "Categories of individuals covered by the system," "Purpose(s)," "Disclosure to consumer reporting agencies," and "Exemptions claimed for the system" to comply with OMB and Federal Register requirements; updating "System location;" expanding "Categories of records in the system;" re-numbering and adding routine uses Nos. 1 through 33; updating "Storage;" "Retrievability," "Safeguards," and "System manager(s) and address;" clarifying "Notification procedure," "Record access procedures" and "Contesting record procedures;" and technical revisions.

The proposed changes to the system entitled FEC 9, Litigation Actions include: Adding data elements "Security classification," "Purpose(s)," "Disclosure to consumer reporting agencies," and "Exemptions claimed for the system" to comply with Federal Register requirements; expanding the "Categories of individuals covered by the system" and "Categories of records in the system;" adding routine uses Nos. 3-13; updating "Storage," "Retrievability," "Safeguards," "Retention and disposal," and "System manager(s) and address;" clarifying the "Notification procedure," "Record access procedures," and "Contesting record procedures;" and technical revisions.

The proposed changes to the system entitled FEC 10, Letter File. Public Communications include: Adding data elements "Security classification," "Purpose(s)," "Disclosure to consumer reporting agencies," "Safeguards," and "Exemptions claimed for the system" to comply with OMB and Federal Register requirements; updating "System location;" expanding the "Categories of individuals covered by the system;" clarifying the "Categories of records in the system;" adding routine uses Nos. 3 through 12; updating "Retrievability," "Retention and disposal," and "System manager(s) and address;" clarifying "Notification procedure;" "Record access procedures," "Contesting record procedures," and "Record source categories;" and technical revisions.

The proposed changes to the system entitled FEC 11, Contributor Name Index System include: Adding data elements "Security classification," "Purpose(s)," "Disclosure to consumer reporting agencies," and "Exemptions claimed for the system" to comply with OMB and Federal Register requirements; updating "System location;" expanding "Categories of individuals covered by the system;" clarifying "Categories of records in the system;" deleting routine uses; updating "Storage," "Retrievability," "Safeguards," "Retention and disposal," and "System manager(s) and address;" clarifying "Notification procedure," "Record access procedures," and "Contesting record procedures;" expanding "Record source categories;" and technical revisions.

The Commission recently published a proposed notice of revised system of records covering the system entitled FEC 12, Inspector General Investigative Files. 72 FR 3141 (January 24, 2007). Thus, changes to FEC 12 include only technical revisions.

The FEC proposes to establish the system of records entitled FEC 13, Travel Records of Employees. FEC 13 would cover travel records of FEC employees.

The FEC proposes to establish the system of records entitled FEC 14, Alternative Dispute Resolution Program. FEC 14 would cover documents generated by the FEC's Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) program. The ADR program was established to provide parties in enforcement actions with an alternative method for resolving complaints filed against them or for addressing issues identified in the course of an FEC audit. The resolution process is designed to promote compliance with the Federal Election Campaign Act, as amended and Commission regulations and to reduce the cost of processing complaints by encouraging settlements outside the FEC's normal enforcement track.

The FEC proposes to establish the System of Records entitled FEC 15, FEC Freedom of Information Act System. The Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. 552, generally provides any person with the right to obtain access to agency records unless the information is protected from disclosure by any of the nine exemptions or special law enforcement exclusions. FEC 15 would cover records of FEC compliance with the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), such as FOIA requests, responses, and appeals.

The FEC proposes to establish FEC 16, HSPD-12: Identity Management, Personal Security, Physical and Logical Access Files. Homeland Security Presidential Directive 12 (HSPD-12) requires federal agencies to use a common identification credential for both logical and physical access to federally controlled facilities and information systems. The FEC plans to enter into a shared services support agreement with an approved shared service provider to automate the process of issuing credentials to all agency employees, contractors, volunteers, and other individuals who require routine, long-term access to agency facilities, systems, and networks. Credentials are issued based on sound criteria to verify an individual's identity, that are strongly resistant to fraud, tampering, counterfeiting, and terrorist exploitation, and that provide for rapid, electronic authentication of personal identity by a provider whose reliability has been established through an official accreditation process.

As required by 5 U.S.C. 552a(r) of the Privacy Act of 1974, as amended, and OMB Circular A-130, the FEC has submitted a report describing the new and altered systems of records covered by this notice to the Office of Management and Budget and to Congress.

Dated: December 19, 2007.

- c. Any employee of the agency in his or her individual capacity where the Department of Justice has agreed to represent the employee; or
- d. The United States, where the agency determines that litigation is likely to affect the agency or any of its components, is a party to litigation or has an interest in such litigation, and the use of such records by the Department of Justice is deemed, after careful review, by the Federal Election Commission to be relevant and necessary to the litigation, provided, however, that in each case the agency determines that disclosure of the records to the Department of Justice is a use of the information contained in the records that is compatible with the purpose for which the records were collected.

2. To disclose them in a proceeding before a court or adjudicative body before which the agency is authorized to appear when:

- a. The agency, or any component thereof; or
- b. Any employee of the agency in his or her official capacity; or
- c. Any employee of the agency in his or her individual capacity where the agency has agreed to represent the employee; or
- d. The United States, where the agency determines that litigation is likely to affect the agency, or any of its components, is a party to litigation or has an interest in such litigation, and the Federal Election Commission determines that, after careful review, use of such records is relevant and necessary to the litigation, provided, however, that the agency determines that disclosure of the records is compatible with the purpose for which the records were collected.

3. To the news media or the general public, factual information the disclosure of which would be in the public interest and which would not constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.

4. To appropriate Federal, foreign, State, local, tribal, or other public authorities responsible for enforcing, investigating or prosecuting civil or criminal violations of law or as necessary to facilitate parallel investigations or to assist the other agency with the investigation or prosecution of a matter within its jurisdiction.

5. To Federal, State, and local law enforcement agencies and private security contractors, as appropriate, to enable them to protect the safety of Commission employees and visitors and the security of the Commission's workplace; and to assist investigations or prosecutions with respect to activities that affect such safety and security or activities that disrupt the operation of Commission facilities.

6. To a congressional office from the record of an individual in response to an inquiry from the congressional office made at the written request of the individual about whom the record is maintained (e.g., a constituent request). Disclosure will not be made until the congressional office has furnished appropriate documentation of the individual's request, such as a copy of the individual's written request.

7. To the National Archives and Records Administration or to the General Services Administration for records management inspections conducted under 44 U.S.C. 2903 and 2904.

8. Recipients shall be required to comply with the requirements of the Privacy Act of 1974, as amended, 5 U.S.C. 552a.

9. To an authorized appeal grievance examiner, formal complaints examiner, equal employment opportunity investigator, arbitrator or other person properly engaged in investigation or settlement of an administrative grievance, complaint, claim, or appeal filed by an employee or former employee, but only to the extent that information is relevant and necessary to the proceeding. The Associate General Counsel assigns compliance actions to an attorney and/or to appropriate staff for investigation. Administrative action pursuant to 2 U.S.C. 437g and civil litigation are handled by the General Counsel's Office. Upon the closing of the compliance matter, certain documents are placed on the public record.

ROUTINE USES OF RECORDS MAINTAINED IN THE SYSTEM, INCLUDING CATEGORIES OF USERS AND THE PURPOSES OF SUCH USES:

These records and the information contained in these records may be disclosed as follows:

1. To the Department of Justice when:
 - a. The agency, or any component thereof; or
 - b. Any employee of the agency in his or her official capacity; or
 - c. Any employee of the agency in his or her individual capacity where the Department of Justice has agreed to represent the employee; or

likely to affect the agency or any of its components, is a party to litigation or has an interest in such litigation, and the use of such records by the Department of Justice is deemed, after careful review, by the Federal Election Commission to be relevant and necessary to the litigation, provided, however, that in each case the agency determines that disclosure of the records to the Department of Justice is a use of the information contained in the records that is compatible with the purpose for which the records were collected.

2. To disclose them in a proceeding before a court or adjudicative body before which the agency is authorized to appear when:

- a. The agency, or any component thereof; or
- b. Any employee of the agency in his or her official capacity; or
- c. Any employee of the agency in his or her individual capacity where the agency has agreed to represent the employee; or

d. The United States, where the agency determines that litigation is likely to affect the agency, or any of its components, is a party to litigation or has an interest in such litigation, and the Federal Election Commission determines that, after careful review, use of such records is relevant and necessary to the litigation, provided, however, that the agency determines that disclosure of the records is compatible with the purpose for which the records were collected.

3. Except as noted on Forms SF-85, SF 85-P and SF-86, to appropriate Federal, foreign, State, local, or other public authorities responsible for enforcing, investigating or prosecuting civil or criminal violations of law or as necessary to facilitate parallel investigations or to assist the other agency with the investigation or prosecution of a matter within its jurisdiction.

4. To any source or potential source from which information is requested in the course of an investigation concerning the retention of an employee or other personnel action (other than hiring), or the retention of a security clearance, contract, grant, license, or other benefit, to the extent necessary to identify the individual, inform the source of the nature and purpose of the investigation, and to identify the type of information requested.

the issuance or retention of a license, grant, or other benefit. The other agency or licensing organization may then make a request supported by written consent of the individual for the entire record if it so chooses. No disclosure will be made unless the information has been determined to be sufficiently reliable to support a referral to another office within the agency or to another Federal agency for criminal, civil, administrative, personnel, or regulatory action.

6. To Federal, State, and local law enforcement agencies and private security contractors, as appropriate, to enable them to protect the safety of Commission employees and visitors and the security of the Commission's workplace; and to assist investigations or prosecutions with respect to activities that affect such safety and security or activities that disrupt the operation of Commission facilities.

16. To designated agency personnel for controlled access to specific records for the purposes of performing authorized audit or authorized oversight and administrative functions. All access is controlled systematically through authentication using PIV credentials based on access and authorization rules for specific audit and administrative functions.

These safeguards include the application of appropriate access control mechanisms to ensure the confidentiality, integrity, and availability of those records and that they are only accessed by those with a need to know and dictated by their official duties.
