B. Statement of Purpose/Mission Statement & Brief Institutional History

Provide the institution's mission statement or statement of purpose as well as a brief institutional history (not to exceed one single-spaced page; no less than 12-point type).

C. Narrative

The nomination should address the following questions thoroughly and succinctly (not to exceed five single-space pages; no less than 12-point type). The jurors determining the pool of potential medal winners will focus closely on your answers to these questions.

1. What are the institution's goals for community service? How do these goals reflect the institution's mission and strategic plan? How do they reflect an assessment of the broader community's learning or informational needs?
2. Describe the population groups/communities the institution is reaching through its community services and provide examples of the programs and services that have been developed for these communities. How are the programs and services evaluated to determine whether they are successfully meeting the needs of the audiences?
3. How does the institution work with other organizations within the broader community to provide programs and services and to play a leadership role?
4. How does the institution demonstrate sustained commitment to the community?

D. Institutional Financial Statements

Include a copy of your institution's financial statements for the past two complete fiscal years. If at time of nomination your fiscal year is complete but not yet audited, please submit these unaudited figures and label as such.

If your institution is part of a larger organization (municipal government, university, etc.) do not include financial statements for the parent organization, only for the nominee.

E. Letters of Support

An institution may submit up to three letters of support with the nomination. These letters should come from community members who have direct knowledge of the institution's community service. It is recommended that the letters come from different segments of the broader community served by the institution.
