

Subject: testing

Date: Thursday, June 7, 2007 11:38 AM

Please accept non-animal testing that has already been accepted internationally. It is time to step up and update. I personally would not accept test results from animal testing. It has failed too many times. Their systems are not like humans and we have the capability to test more efficiently with out using animals.

Thank-you for your time,

Suzann Gilmore