

Corporation for NATIONAL & COMMUNITY SERVICE

The Corporation for National and Community Service improves lives, strengthens communities, and fosters civic engagement through service and volunteering. As the nation's largest grant maker in support of service and volunteering, the Corporation engages four million Americans of all ages and backgrounds in service to their communities each year through the Senior Corps, AmeriCorps, VISTA, NCCC, and Learn and Serve America programs, and it supports millions more through a variety of other initiatives. Participants in Corporation programs and the community volunteers they help coordinate enable thousands of national and local nonprofit organizations, faith-based groups, schools, and municipal agencies to solve tough problems and meet local needs in education, the environment, public safety, disaster response, and other critical areas.

SENIOR CORPS

Each year Senior Corps taps the skills, talents, and experience of nearly 500,000 Americans age 55 and older to meet a wide range of community challenges through three programs: RSVP, the Foster Grandparent Program, and the Senior Companion Program. RSVP volunteers help local police departments conduct safety patrols, participate in environmental projects, provide intensive educational services to children and adults, and respond to natural disasters, among many other activities. Foster Grandparents serve one-on-one as tutors and mentors to young people with special needs. Senior Companions help homebound seniors and other adults maintain independence in their own homes.

AMERICORPS

AmeriCorps provides opportunities for 75,000 Americans each year to give intensive service to their communities and country through three programs: AmeriCorps State and National, AmeriCorps VISTA, and AmeriCorps

NCCC (National Civilian Community Corps). AmeriCorps members tutor and mentor youth, build affordable housing, teach computer skills, clean parks and streams, run after-school programs, help communities respond to disasters, and build the capacity of nonprofit groups to become self-sustaining, among many other activities. AmeriCorps members in recent years have stepped up their role in recruiting, training, and managing volunteers of all ages and backgrounds, supporting 1.7 million community volunteers in 2007 alone. In exchange for a year of full-time service, members earn a Segal AmeriCorps Education Award of $4,725 that can be used to pay for college or graduate school, or to pay back qualified student loans. Since 1994, more than 540,000 Americans have served in AmeriCorps.

LEARN AND SERVE AMERICA

Learn and Serve America provides an “on-ramp” to a lifetime of civic engagement for approximately 1.4 million students each year. The program awards grants to state education agencies, schools, nonprofit groups, and institutions of higher education to engage students in service activities linked to academic achievement. This type of learning, called service-learning, increases academic achievement while developing in young people the habits of citizenship. As part of its goal of making student service and service-learning a common practice across the country, Learn and Serve America provides resources to teachers, faculty members, schools, and community groups.

OTHER PROGRAMS AND INITIATIVES

- The President's Council on Service and Civic Participation promotes volunteering and presents the President's Volunteer Service Award to citizens of all ages and backgrounds who have demonstrated a sustained commitment to service.
- The National Conference on Volunteering and Service is the premier annual gathering of leaders of the volunteering and national service world.
- King Day of Service supports community organizations in their efforts to engage local citizens in service on the Martin Luther King, Jr. Federal Holiday.
- The President's Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll honors colleges and universities for the commitment of their students, faculty, and staff to community service.

PRESIDENT'S CALL TO SERVICE

In his 2002 State of the Union address, President Bush called on all Americans to devote the equivalent of at least two years of their lives—or 4,000 hours—to service and volunteering, and he created USA Freedom Corps as a way to promote service and coordinate volunteer opportunities offered through Federal programs. The USA Freedom Corps web site, www.volunteer.gov, hosts an online clearinghouse of volunteer opportunities nationwide for Americans interested in engaging in their community. Together with USA Freedom Corps, the Corporation for National and Community Service is fostering a culture of citizenship, service, and responsibility and helping all Americans answer the President's call to service.
