

New for 2007 – Expanded Power Operations Classroom Curriculum

11/10/06 -- In an effort to further expand the classroom course offerings at the Power Operations Training Center, the Southwestern Power Administration, in cooperation with System Operations Success International, Operator Educational Services – North America, and PowerSmiths International, will offer the following classroom topics that are all approved for North American Electric Reliability Council Continuing Education Hours in 2007:

- NERC Certification
- NERC Standards Applied
- Power System Simulation
- Generation Operations
- Transmission Operations
- Emergency Operations
- Power System Switching
- Power System Restoration
- Communication and Critical Thinking
- Power System Protection and Relaying
- Voltage Control