FSPA

Former Spouses' Protection Act (FSPA), Public Law 97-252, 8 September 1982, provides several benefits for former spouses of Coast Guard or NOAA Corps retirees including direct payments from retired pay for child support, alimony, or as a division of property.

Property Division

FSPA permits, but does not require, state courts to divide military disposable retired pay as marital property between parties in a divorce action. The courts cannot treat military retired pay as property unless the court has jurisdiction over the member by reason of: (a) the member's residence, other than because of military assignment, in the territorial jurisdiction of the court; (b) the member's domicile in the jurisdiction of the court; or (c) the member's consent to the jurisdiction of the court. Divorces finalized before 26 June 1981 (the date of the U.S. Supreme Court "McCarty" decision, in which case the court ruled that military retired pay was not subject to division as property in a divorce case) cannot be modified to call for a portion of the member's retired pay based on this legislation. However, divorces after that date can be modified.

What is Disposable Retired Pay?

For divorces before 3 Feb 91:

Disposable retired pay is the member's gross pay entitlement, less authorized deductions. Those authorized deductions include the following:

1. Debts owed to the United States.
2. Fines and forfeitures ordered by a court-martial.
3. Amounts waived in order to receive compensation under Title 5 or Title 38, United States Code, i.e., dual compensation and Veterans Administration compensation.
4. Federal employment taxes withheld.
5. Amounts local properly withheld for federal, state, or income tax purposes, if such withholding is authorized or required by law and if the amounts withheld are not greater than would be the case if the individual claimed all dependents to which entitled.

What is disposable retired pay?

6. Additional tax amounts withheld at the voluntary request of the member, but only when the member presents evidence satisfactory to PSC (LGL) of a tax obligation that supports the additional withholding.
7. Amounts paid as a result of the member's election to provide an annuity under the Retired Serviceman's Family Protection Plan or the Survivor Benefit Plan to a former spouse to whom payment of a portion of the member's retired pay is being made pursuant to a court order under the FSPA.
8. Any other amounts required by law to be deducted including portions of retired pay attributable to disability if divorced on or after 14 November 1986 (see item 3 below).

For divorces on and after 3 Feb 91:

Disposable retired pay is the total monthly retired pay to which a member is entitled less amounts which--

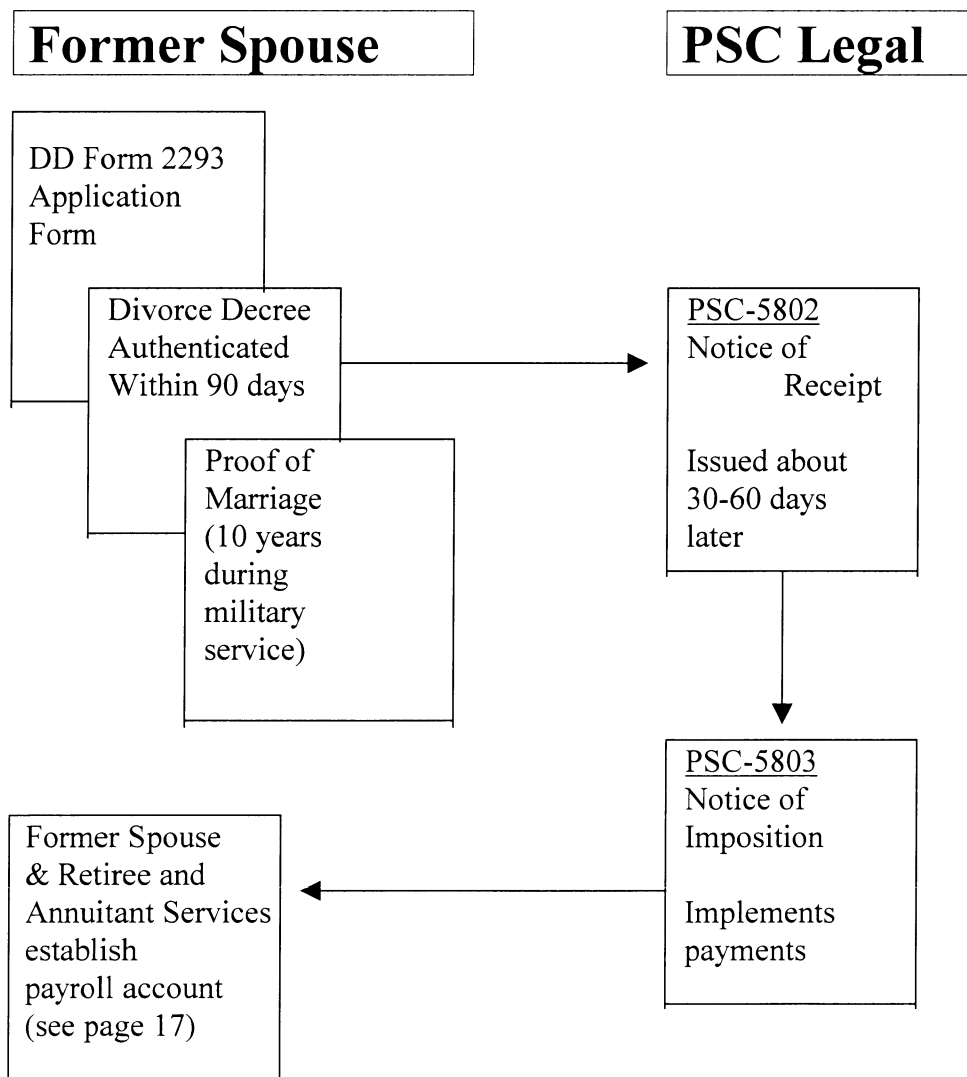

1. are owed by that member to the United States for previous overpayments of retired pay and for recoupments required by law resulting from entitlement to retired pay;
2. are deducted from the retired pay of such member as a result of forfeitures of retired pay ordered by a court-martial or as a result of a waiver of retired pay required by law in order to receive compensation under title 5, dual compensation, or title 38, VA compensation;
3. [in the case of a member entitled to retired pay under Title 10 U.S. Code, Chapter 61] are equal to the amount of retired pay of the member under that chapter computed using the percentage of the member's disability on the date when the member was retired (or the date on which the member's name was placed on the temporary disability retired list); or
4. are deducted because of an election under chapter 73 of this title to provide an annuity to a spouse or former spouse to whom payment of a portion of such member's retired pay is being made pursuant to a court order under this section.

Direct Payment

FSPA permits the Coast Guard Personnel Service Center to make direct payments to a former spouse from a retiree's disposable retired pay for:

1. Division of retired pay as marital property
2. Alimony (spousal support)
3. Child support
4. Combination of above.

The amount that can be paid cannot exceed 50 percent of disposable retired pay except when the retiree's pay is also subject to garnishment. Then, not more than 65 percent of disposable retired pay may be withheld to fulfill legal obligations. To qualify for a direct payment of retired pay as a property division, the former spouse must have been married to the member for ten years or more, during which the member performed at least ten years of creditable military service. There is no length of marriage requirement to qualify for a direct payment from retired pay for child support or alimony.

Application Information for Direct Payments under UNIFORMED SERVICES FORMER SPOUSES' PROTECTION ACT

1. Complete the enclosed application form, DD Form 2293, issued by the Department of Defense.
2. Enclose a certified copy of your final decree of divorce, dissolution, annulment, or legal separation. It is required that the court order be authenticated or certified within 90 days immediately preceding its service on the Coast Guard. It must furthermore be issued by a court that had jurisdiction over your former spouse by virtue of his or her residence within the territorial jurisdiction of the court for purposes other than military assignment, or his or her domicile within the territorial jurisdiction of the court, or his or her consent to the court's exercise of jurisdiction over him.
3. Enclose a certified copy of the court order - if not included in your divorce, dissolution, annulment or separation decree - directing that you receive a specific percentage or dollar amount of your former spouse's retired pay. This may be in the form of a court ordered, ratified or approved property settlement incident to such final decree.
4. Provide sufficient identifying information about your former spouse to permit processing of your request including his or her full name and social security number. Additional identifying information may be included in the application form (DD Form 2293).
5. If the court order does not specify that you were married to your former spouse for ten years during the course of which he or she performed ten years of service creditable in determining eligibility for retired pay, you must provide sufficient evidence for the Coast Guard to verify that this requirement has been met.
6. If the court order was issued while your former spouse was on active duty and he or she was not represented in court, the court order must specify or be accompanied by documents that certify that the former spouse member's rights under the Soldiers and Sailors Civil Relief Act of 1940, 50 U.S.C. Appendix 501-591, or Servicemembers' Civil Relief Act of 2003 (Public Law 108-189) were met.

I hereby acknowledge that any payment to me must be paid from disposable retired pay as defined by the statute and implementing regulations.

Survivor Benefit Plan

Retirees may name a former spouse as their beneficiary under the Survivor Benefit Plan (SBP) at the time of retirement, even if the member has remarried. For retirees who have SBP coverage for their spouse, and later divorce, they have one year from the date of the divorce to voluntarily elect former spouse coverage, if they so desire. A divorce decree terminates SBP coverage for a spouse unless the retiree voluntarily elects to provide former spouse coverage or coverage on behalf of the former spouse is deemed by the Coast Guard or NOAA Corps. Former spouses have one year from the date of their divorce to request that the Coast Guard deem their election as a former spouse beneficiary. For divorce decrees entered before 14 November 1986, the Coast Guard or NOAA Corps may deem election of SBP coverage for a former spouse if the member voluntarily agreed to former spouse coverage in writing. For divorce decrees entered on or after 14 November 1986, state courts may order SBP coverage for the former spouse without the voluntary agreement of the member (P.L. 99-661), and the Coast Guard or NOAA Corps may deem the election based on the decree.

SECTION VII - PRIVACY ACT STATEMENT

AUTHORITY: 10 U.S.C. sections 1061 - 1065, 1072 - 1074, 1074a - 1074c, 1076, 1076a, 1077, 1095(k)(2), E.O. 9397.

PRINCIPAL PURPOSE(S): To apply for the Uniformed Services Identification Card and/or DEERS Enrollment.

ROUTINE USE(S): To appropriate business entities, individual providers of care, and others, on matters relating to claims adjudication, program abuse, utilization review, professional quality assurance, medical peer review, program integrity, third party liability, coordination of benefits, and civil and criminal litigation.

To the Department of Health and Human Services, the Department of Veterans Affairs, the Social Security Administration, and to other Federal, state, and local government agencies to identify individuals having benefit eligibility in another plan or program.

Applicant information is subject to computer matching within the Department of Defense or with other Federal or non-Federal agencies. Matching programs are conducted to assure that an individual eligible under a Federal program is not improperly receiving duplicate benefits from another program. A beneficiary or former beneficiary who has applied for privileges of a Federal Benefit Program and has received concurrent assistance under another plan will be subject to adjustment or recovery of any improper payments made or delinquent debts owed.

DISCLOSURE: Voluntary; however, failure to provide information may result in denial of a Uniformed Services Identification Card and/or non-enrollment in the Defense Enrollment Eligibility Reporting System. Failure to provide a beneficiary's Social Security Number renders that beneficiary ineligible for health care services in Military Treatment Facilities. However, emergency health care services will be provided to the extent furnished members of the general public.

SECTION VIII - CONDITIONS APPLICABLE TO SPONSOR OR APPLICANT

I understand that the actions of the recipient(s) of the "Uniformed Services Identification Card" issued as a result of this application are my responsibility insofar as proper use of the card for benefits and privileges authorized; i.e., medical and dental care, exchange, commissary, and morale, welfare, and recreation programs. I will cause the recipient to surrender the card immediately upon call to do so or when appropriate under applicable regulations, and will notify an agency designated to grant authorization for privileges and facilities in event of any change in status affecting a recipient's eligibility therefor.

I am aware that medical care furnished in uniformed services facilities is subject to availability of space, facilities, and the capabilities of the medical staff to provide such care. Determinations made by the medical officer or contract surgeon, or his/her designee, as to availability of space, facilities, and the capabilities of the medical staff shall be conclusive.

Reimbursement shall be required for any unauthorized medical and dental care furnished at government expense. Copies of regulations concerning eligibility requirements are available in the Service Personnel Offices.

By signing this document, the sponsor or applicant certifies that he/she is aware that eligibility for benefits under the Civilian Health and Medical Program of the Uniformed Services (CHAMPUS) terminates for all beneficiaries, except spouses and children of active duty members, and certain disabled beneficiaries under 65, when the beneficiary becomes eligible for Medicare Part A, Hospital Insurance, through the Social Security Administration.

PENALTY FOR PRESENTING FALSE CLAIMS OR MAKING FALSE STATEMENTS
IN CONNECTION WITH CLAIMS: FINE OF UP TO $10,000 OR IMPRISONMENT FOR UP TO FIVE YEARS OR BOTH.
