

out those agreements, including the World Trade Organization (WTO) Agreement on Textiles and Clothing (ATC), the Report of the Working Party on the Accession of China to the WTO (Accession Agreement), and certain bilateral textile agreements with countries that are not Members of the WTO, CITA is directing the Commissioner, Customs and Border Protection, to stage entry of goods exported in 2004 in excess of ATC, Accession Agreement, or bilateral textile agreement limits.

For all shipments exported in 2004 that exceed the applicable 2004 agreed quota limit from WTO Members and from countries with bilateral textile agreements expiring on December 31 that are not WTO Members, entry will not be permitted until February 1, 2005. From February 1 through February 28, 2005, entry will be permitted to goods in an amount equal to 5 percent of the applicable 2004 base quota limit. For each succeeding month, beginning on the first day of the month and extending through the last day of the month, entry will be permitted to goods in an amount equal to 5 percent of the applicable base 2004 quota limit, until all shipments in excess of the quota limits have been entered.

For all shipments exported from China that exceed the applicable Accession Agreement safeguard limits for categories 222, 349/649, and 350/650, which apply to goods in these categories exported from China between December 24, 2003 and December 23, 2004, entry will not be permitted until January 24, 2005. From January 24 through February 23, 2005, entry will be permitted to goods in an amount equal to 5 percent of the applicable safeguard limit. For each succeeding period, beginning on the 24th of the month and extending through the 23rd of the following month, entry will be permitted to goods in an amount equal to 5 percent of the applicable base safeguard limit, until all shipments in excess of safeguard limits have been entered.

2004 quota base limits can be found on the Web at <http://otexa.ita.doc.gov> under "Summary of Agreements."

James C. Leonard, III,

Chairman, Committee for the Implementation of Textile Agreements.

Committee for the Implementation of Textile Agreements

Commissioner, Customs and Border Protection, Washington, DC 20229, December 9, 2004.

Dear Commissioner: This directive provides instructions on permitting entry to goods shipped in excess of 2004 quota limits, for WTO Members or countries with expiring bilateral textile agreements, and in excess of China safeguard limits imposed in 2003.

For all shipments exported in 2004 that exceed the applicable 2004 agreed quota limit from WTO Members and from countries with bilateral textile agreements expiring on December 31 that are not WTO Members, you are directed to deny entry until February 1, 2005, subject to the following procedure. From February 1 through February 28, 2005, you are directed to permit entry to goods in an amount equal to 5 percent of the applicable 2004 base quota limit. For each succeeding month, beginning on the first day of the month and extending through the last day of the month, you are directed to permit entry to goods in an amount equal to 5 percent of the applicable base 2004 quota limit, until all shipments in excess of the quota limits have been entered.

For all shipments exported from China that exceed the applicable safeguard limits for categories 222, 349/649, and 350/650, you are directed to deny entry until January 24, 2005, subject to the following procedure. From January 24 through February 23, 2005, you are directed to permit entry to goods in an amount equal to 5 percent of the applicable safeguard limit. For each succeeding period, beginning on the 24th of the month and extending through the 23rd of the following month, you are directed to permit entry to goods in an amount equal to 5 percent of the applicable base safeguard limit, until all shipments in excess of safeguard limits have been entered.

The Committee for the Implementation of Textile Agreements has determined that this action falls within the foreign affairs exception to the rulemaking provisions of 5 U.S.C. 553(a)(1).

Sincerely,

James C. Leonard III,

Chairman, Committee for the Implementation of Textile Agreements.

CORPORATION FOR NATIONAL AND COMMUNITY SERVICE

Proposed Information Collection; Comment Request

AGENCY: Corporation for National and Community Service.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The Corporation for National and Community Service (hereinafter the "Corporation"), as part of its continuing effort to reduce paperwork and respondent burden, conducts a pre-clearance consultation program to provide the general public and federal agencies with an opportunity to comment on proposed and/or continuing collections of information in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (PRA95) (44 U.S.C. 3506(c)(2)(A)). This program helps to ensure that requested data can be provided in the desired format, reporting burden (time and financial resources) is minimized, collection instruments are clearly understood, and the impact of collection requirement on respondents can be properly assessed.

Currently, the Corporation is soliciting comments concerning its proposed renewal of its National Senior Service Corps (Senior Corps) Grant Application. This application is used by current and prospective grantees to apply for sponsorship of projects under the Retired and Senior Volunteer Program (RSVP); the Foster Grandparent Program (FGP); the Senior Companion Program (SCP); the Senior Demonstration Program (SDP); and the Special Volunteer Program—Homeland Security (SVP). Completion of the Grant Application is required to be considered for or obtain sponsorship.

Copies of the information collection requests can be obtained by contacting the office listed in the address section of this notice.

DATES: Written comments must be submitted to the individual and office listed in the ADDRESSES section by February 11, 2005.

ADDRESSES: You may submit comments, identified by the title of the information collection activity, by any of the following methods:

(1) By mail sent to: Corporation for National and Community Service, National Senior Service Corps; Attention Ms. Angela Roberts, Associate Director, Room 9305; 1201 New York Avenue, NW., Washington, DC 20525.

(2) By hand delivery or by courier to the Corporation's mailroom at Room 6010 at the mail address given in paragraph (1) above, between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. Monday through Friday, except Federal holidays.

(3) By fax to: (202) 565-2743, Attention Ms. Angela Roberts, Associate Director.

(4) Electronically through the Corporation's e-mail address system: aroberts@cns.gov.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Angela Roberts, (202) 606-5000, ext. 111, or by e-mail at aroberts@cns.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

The Corporation is particularly interested in comments that:

- Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the Corporation, including whether the information will have practical utility;
- Evaluate the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;

- Enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and
- Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are expected to respond, including the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology (e.g., permitting electronic submissions of responses).

Background: The Senior Corps Grant Application is completed by applicant organizations interested in sponsoring a Senior Corps program. The application is completed electronically using the Corporation's web-based grants management system, eGrants.

Current Action: The Corporation seeks to renew and revise the current application. When revised, the application will include additional instructions to clarify narrative and work plan sections; will contain an updated list of "Service Categories" used by applicants to identify the types of needs the national service participants will meet; and will contain current references used in the grants management system. The application will otherwise be used in the same manner as the existing application. The Corporation also seeks to continue using the current application until the revised application is approved by OMB. The current application is due to expire on March 31, 2005.

Type of Review: Renewal.
