Section A: All Participants

Participants in King County Commuter Van Programs agree to comply with the following Terms and Conditions:

1. The Participant Agreement shall be effective as of the date signed by the Participant. Participants shall not be considered or hold themselves out to be Primary Drivers, Backup Drivers or Bookkeepers in a King County Commuter Van Program until their applications have been approved by King County Rideshare Operations. The Agreement shall continue in force until one of the parties gives the other party written notice 15 days prior to the planned date of termination. Participants may terminate their participation for any reason. King County may terminate the Participation Agreement and/or the commuter van as a whole for any of the following reasons:
 - a. if fares drop below the break-even point for two consecutive months;
 - b. if the operation of the commuter van becomes inconsistent with the evaluation criteria established for the King County Commuter Van Programs;
 - c. if the Program in which the Participant is active is terminated;
 - d. if the Participant fails to pay his or her monthly fare promptly;
 - e. if the Participant disrupts the operation of the commuter van;
 - f. if the Participant fails to abide by these Terms and Conditions; or
 - g. for other reasons as determined by King County Rideshare Operations.
2. Participants acknowledge that King County may revise these Terms and Conditions and that Participants shall comply with such revisions in order to continue to participate in King County Commuter Van Programs.
3. Vanpool Participants will pay their monthly vanpool fares to Bookkeepers prior to riding and not later than the first of each month. The Participant's monthly vanpool fare is their portion of the Fixed Rate as determined by King County. Vanshare Participants will make payment to King County in accordance with stated invoice terms.
4. Participants will abide by all day-to-day operational rules of their commuter groups as established by majority vote of the group members or as may be directed from time to time by King County Rideshare Operations.
5. Vanpool Participants will abide by the policies and rules set forth in the King County VanPool Program Manual provided to commuter groups by King County Rideshare Operations. Participants acknowledge that King County Rideshare Operations may revise those policies and rules and that Participants shall comply with such revisions in order to continue to participate in King County Commuter Van Programs.
6. Vanshare Participants will abide by the policies and rules set forth in the King County VanShare Program Guide provided to commuter groups by King County Rideshare Operations. Participants acknowledge that King County Rideshare Operations may revise those policies and rules and that Participants shall comply with such revisions in order to continue to participate in King County VanShare Program.
7. Participants will receive and provide program information via email and/or U.S. Mail.
8. Participants will notify the drivers in advance of all anticipated non-use of vans due to such factors as vacation, business travel, overtime, sickness, etc.
9. Participants will notify drivers 15 calendar days in advance of planned termination of participation in Commuter Van Programs.
10. Participants will help maintain and increase ridership in the commuter group.
11. Participants will help keep the van clean and tidy.
12. Participants will find alternate transportation on days when vans do not operate and when work or personal schedules do not allow participation in Commuter Van Programs.
13. Vanshare Participants shall provide and pay fuel costs for the van.
14. Participants will cooperate to ensure, to the best of their ability, that no person shall be denied the opportunity to participate in or be subjected to discrimination in the conduct of King County Commuter Van Programs because of race, creed, color, sex, age, national origin, sexual orientation, or the presence of any sensory, mental or physical disability in any manner contrary to applicable local ordinance, state or federal laws and regulations.
15. Participants will indemnify and hold harmless King County, its authorized agents and employees from all claims, actions, costs, damages or expenses of any nature whatsoever arising out of or resulting from any delays, tardiness, failure to make an appropriate or scheduled pick-up, absence of the van or termination of the Program.
16. Participants acknowledge that the King County Rideshare Operations provides ridesharing referral services without screening the character or background of Participants or applicants. King County shall have no responsibility or liability for any acts or omissions of King County Commuter Van Programs Participants or applicants except as otherwise provided in these Terms and Conditions.
17. Participants agree that if they do not pay any amounts owed to King County for their participation In Commuter Van Programs, King County Rideshare Operations may refer the debt to a collection agency in accordance with state and federal law.

Section B: Drivers

Each driver, including Primary and Backup drivers, in King County Commuter Van Programs agrees to comply with the following Terms and Conditions, in addition to those Terms and Conditions set forth in Section A above:

1. Drivers shall maintain valid driver's licenses as required by the State of Washington.
2. Drivers shall notify King County Rideshare Operations when they no longer meet the Driver Selection Criteria established by the King County Rideshare Operations.
3. Vanpool drivers shall complete the King County VanPool Program Orientation Course prior to taking possession of or operating vans.
4. Backup drivers shall assume all responsibilities of Primary drivers when acting in that capacity.
5. Drivers shall drive vans to and from work/school, picking up and discharging riders in accordance with the mutually established routes and schedules.
6. Vanpool drivers shall coordinate maintenance, cleaning and servicing of vans as prescribed in the King County VanPool Program Manual.
7. Vanshare drivers shall coordinate maintenance, cleaning and servicing of vans as prescribed in the King County VanShare Program Guide.
8. Vanpool drivers shall keep daily and monthly records as required by the King County Rideshare Operations, submitting them to King County Rideshare Operations as scheduled in the King County VanPool Program Manual.
9. Drivers shall keep and report monthly odometer readings of their van as required by the King County Rideshare Operations.
10. Primary drivers shall coordinate with Backup drivers to help ensure continued operation of van in the absence of the Primary drivers.
11. Vanpool drivers shall coordinate the provision of alternate transportation when the vans are not available.
12. Drivers shall coordinate the development of rules for the day-to-day operation of their commuter groups (e.g.. smoking, wait times, radio, etc.).

13. Vanpool drivers shall comply with the policies and rules in the King County VanPool Program Manual related to personal use of vans. Paying for the cost of personal use is the responsibility of the vanpool drivers.
14. Drivers agree they shall be considered to be volunteers under the law and shall not hold themselves out to be, or act as, employees or agents of King County.
15. Drivers shall at all times operate vans in a manner complementary to the public nature of the King County Commuter Van Program, keep the vans clean, drive in a courteous manner and, if asked, explain the unique character of the use of the van.
16. Except in emergency situations, operation of vans shall be restricted to King County approved drivers.
17. Safe driving habits and complete observance of all traffic regulations are required of all drivers. Any citation for a moving traffic violation resulting from the operation of a van is the responsibility of the driver driving the van at the time of issuance of the citation. The cost of any parking ticket and/or impound fees resulting from improper parking of the van is the responsibility of the driver. All drivers shall report each citation they receive for a moving traffic violation, whether received while driving the van or any other motor vehicle, to King County Rideshare Operations within 48 hours.
18. Drivers shall promptly report any vehicular accident involving bodily or property damage, whether the accident occurred while driving the van or any other motor vehicle, to King County Rideshare Operations as detailed in the King County VanPool Program Manual or VanShare Program Guide.
19. Drivers shall comply with the off-street parking policies and rules set forth in the King County VanPool Program Manual or VanShare Program Guide.
20. Drivers shall not use vans for business purposes or for hire; to pull trailers, boats, etc; to haul garbage, debris, or excessive loads; for any purpose requiring the removal of seats; or for any other purposes prohibited in the King County VanPool Program Manual or VanShare Program Guide. Drivers acknowledge that they shall have full liability and responsibility if vans are used for other than permitted purposes or in a manner inconsistent with these Terms and Conditions.
21. Drivers shall drive vans only on hard surfaced streets and highways and other normal access roads and driveways. Drivers shall not drive vans off-road, on beaches, in fields, or in any other potentially unsafe environment.
22. Drivers shall not drive vans over bridges or roads posted for less than a ton maximum weight load. Drivers shall observe width and height clearance requirement of and for the van at all times.
23. Drivers shall not allow accessories, including window or bumper stickers, appearance items or additional equipment, to be added to or removed from the van without prior approval of King County Rideshare Operations.
24. Drivers agree that if they do not pay any amounts owed to King County, King County may refer the debt to a collection agency in accordance with state and federal law.

Section C: Bookkeepers

Bookkeepers in the King County Commuter Van Programs agree to comply with the following Terms and Conditions, in addition to those Terms and Conditions set forth in Sections A and B above, if applicable:

1. Vanpool Bookkeepers shall complete the required portions of the King County VanPool Program Orientation Course prior to assuming Bookkeeper responsibilities.
2. Vanpool Bookkeepers shall collect the monthly fares from all riders not later than the first of the month for which the fares are being paid. Bookkeepers agree that if they do not pay any amounts owed to King County, King County may refer the debt to a collection agency in accordance with state and federal law.

3. Vanpool Bookkeeper may pay and be reimbursed for miscellaneous operating expenses of the van as detailed in the King County VanPool Program Manual.
4. Vanpool Bookkeepers shall keep and submit daily and monthly records as detailed in the King County VanPool Program Manual.
5. The Vanshare group Billing Contact shall pay the monthly invoice within 30 days of receipt.

Section D: King County Rideshare Operations

King County Rideshare Operations agrees to comply with the following Terms and Conditions:

1. King County Rideshare Operations shall provide vans for use by vanpools and vanshares.
2. King County Rideshare Operations shall provide for servicing and maintenance of vanpool and vanshare vans.
3. King County Commuter Van Program shall help drivers, bookkeepers, and billing contacts fulfill their administrative obligations.
4. King County Rideshare Operations shall assist vanpools and vanshares in maintaining ridership.
5. King County Rideshare Operations shall provide service loaner vans by reservation on a first come, first serve basis.
6. King County Rideshare Operations shall assist vanpools and vanshares in making alternate transportation arrangements in the event of mechanical failure of vans.
7. King County Rideshare Operations shall attempt to resolve disputes arising out of established day-to-day operational rules of vanpools and vanshares.
8. King County Rideshare Operations shall establish and maintain a fare schedule for participation in vanpools and vanshares.
9. King County Rideshare Operations shall ensure, to the best of its ability, that no person shall be denied the opportunity to participate in or be subjected to discrimination in the conduct of the Commuter Van Program because of race, creed, color, sex, age, national origin, sexual orientation, or the presence of any sensory, mental or physical disability in any manner contrary to applicable local ordinance, state or federal laws and regulations.
