

Additional Information

- Registration is on a first-come, first-served basis.
- Classes are led by an instructor and are asynchronous in delivery.
- Most classes use Moodle as the platform, a free open source course management system similar to Blackboard or WebCT.

For more information or to register for any of these classes, contact the instructor by e-mail or phone 800-338-7657

National Network of Libraries of Medicine

Funded under contract with the National Library of Medicine, National Institutes of Health

Last updated 4/23/2007

National Network of Libraries of Medicine

Online Classes

FREE Distance Learning Classes from NN/LM.

Basics of Electronic Document Delivery

Description: This course will help health sciences library staff make decisions regarding whether to provide electronic document delivery, and what software and equipment should be acquired. It will also provide information on how to work with different file types and how to determine whether a library's electronic publications can be used in electronic document delivery.

Instructor: Andrea Ryce

E-Mail: rycea@u.washington.edu

Length: Four weeks

Students: Currently limited to 10

MLA CE Contact Hours : 2

Caring for the Mind: Providing Reference Services for Mental Health Information

Description: Participants will develop an increased awareness of mental health issues and cultivate their reference skills in the context of mental health information including enhanced knowledge of resources and ability to handle emotional patrons.

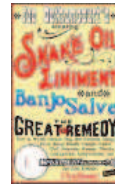

Instructor: Michelle Eberle

E-Mail: michelle.eberle@umassmed.edu

Length: Four weeks

Students: Currently limited to 10

MLA CE Contact Hours: 3

From Snake Oil to Penicillin: Evaluating Consumer Health Information on the Internet

Description: This course will introduce participants to issues surrounding the quality of health information resources on the Internet. A set of recommended criteria to evaluate health information will be provided.

Instructor: Gail Kouame

E-Mail: gmarie@u.washington.edu

Length: Two weeks

Students: Currently limited to 10

MLA CE Contact Hours: 2

¿No Comprende?: Spanish Health Information Resources for English Speaking Librarians

Description: Covers resources for learning basic, library, medical and Internet Spanish vocabulary, along with the evaluation and identification of health websites in Spanish.

Instructor: Sheila Snow-Croft

E-Mail: ssnowcro@hshsl.umaryland.edu

Length: Two Weeks

Students: Currently limited to 10

MLA CE Contact Hours: 4

NLM Gateway

Description: This class is designed to teach students how to use the National Library of Medicine Gateway.

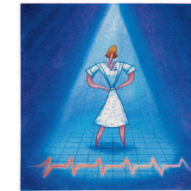

Instructor: Maureen Czujak

E-Mail: mczujak@nyam.org

Length: 1/2 day

Students: Currently limited to 15

MLA CE Contact Hours: 3.5

Nursing on the Net: Health Care Resources You Can Use

Description: This course is designed for librarians responsible for information services to the Nursing and Allied Health professions. Participants will learn to use and evaluate web based health information resources, find online news services, continuing online education courses, and consumer health web sites. Participants will also learn to use the National Library of Medicine's PubMed and MedlinePlus databases.

Instructor: Tammy Mays

E-Mail: tmays@uic.edu

Length: Two weeks

Students: Currently limited to 10

MLA CE Contact Hours: 3

Thinking Like An MBA: Time, Money, Resources, and Change Management in the Library

Description: As not-for-profit institutions adopt more business practices and processes, librarians need to be more knowledgeable about adapting to these current strategies. The class covers the basics of project management, its three components, time, money, and resources, as well as change management.

Instructor: Marty Magee

E-Mail: mmagee@unmc.edu

Length: Four weeks

Students: Currently limited to 10

MLA CE Contact Hours: 4