

MAJ Stephen J. Lettrich, MS, USA

MAJ Stephen Lettrich was the Operations Officer for the Uniformed Services University of the Health Sciences. He earned his Bachelor of Arts in Political Science from Dickinson College in Carlisle, PA. As Operations Officer, he was responsible for all field and tactical training at USU, to include Operation Kerkesner (the first-year medical student exercise), Operation Bushmaster (fourth-year exercise), and the Antietam Road March (first year students), and was the Course Director for the Combat Medical Skills Course. He also taught classes in leadership, military medical systems and operational planning for Military Studies and Military Contingency Medicine. His military experience includes: Treatment Platoon Leader for an Area Support Medical Battalion, Medical Platoon Leader and S-1 for an infantry battalion, S-3 for Blanchfield Army Community Hospital, Combat Health Support Officer for the 3rd Brigade of the 101st Airborne Division (Air Assault) and Company Commander of a Forward Support Medical Company, C/626th FSB, 101st Airborne Division (Air Assault). MAJ Lettrich left the university in the fall of 2006 for a new assignment.