JOB SUMMARY: This position is located in the Creole Service of the Latin America Division of the Voice of America (VOA) in Washington, DC with responsibility for conceiving, planning, researching, writing and broadcasting original radio scripts of a highly complex nature.

THIS IS A BARGAINING UNIT POSITION.

INTRODUCTION TO THE AGENCY:

The Voice of America is a component of the Broadcasting Board of Governors. The VOA broadcasts news and information to millions throughout the world in more than 40 languages, via radio, television and the Internet. Our diverse, multicultural and dedicated professionals staff correspondent bureaus, transmission stations and marketing offices around the world in addition to our main offices in Washington, D.C.

The Full Performance Level: GS-12

KEY REQUIREMENTS:

- Relocation Expenses will not be paid.
- Willingness to work nights, weekends, holidays is required.

MAJOR DUTIES: Writes news-related stories for use in radio using a variety of sources including area experts, daily newspapers, or magazines. Prepares integrated, highly targeted, well-balanced scripts, radio program or program segments, that captures the attention of the audience. Adapts and/or translates material, which may include simultaneous translations. Edits broadcast segments, including stringer reports. Participates in the development of regularly scheduled radio programs.

The incumbent initiates coverage of news and features in consultation with senior editors, participates fully in coverage of major events, and in preparation and execution of broadcast remotes. Initiates and conducts original interviews with a wide variety of subjects and news sources, some of whom may be suspicious and uncooperative and voices material for or during radio broadcasts.

QUALIFICATIONS AND EVALUATION

QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED:

Applicants must meet the following basic requirements:

1 year of specialized experience equivalent to the next lower grade level.

SPECIALIZED EXPERIENCE: The candidate must be experienced in the use of the Creole language in radio broadcasting. Work experience must include writing and translating broadcast material from English into Creole, as well as writing material for broadcast in Creole. The candidate must have comprehensive knowledge of the political, economic, cultural, and social conditions of the audience area, as well as an in-depth knowledge of the history, customs, and psychology of the target area.

SCREEN OUT FACTOR: Fluency in the Creole language sufficient to enable the incumbent to write, report, interview, and announce broadcasts in this language.

HOW YOU WILL BE EVALUATED: Once the application process is complete, a review of your application will be made to ensure you meet the job requirements. Your application will be evaluated and rated under the Category Rating and Selection Procedures. Your resume and supporting documentation will be reviewed and compared to your responses to the KSAs (as applicable) to determine if you meet the minimum qualifications for this position. If you meet the minimum qualifications for this job, your qualifications will be further reviewed by a Human Resources Specialist and a Subject-Matter Expert, OR a panel of subject-matter experts to assess the quality, depth, and complexity of your accomplishments, experience, and education as they relate to the critical experience requirements listed in this vacancy announcement. You will then be placed in one of three rating categories:

- Qualified Category – Meets the specialized experience outlined in the minimum qualifications requirements section of the vacancy announcement.
- Well-Qualified Category – Meets the basic qualification requirements for the vacancy announcement and demonstrates proficiency in the critical competencies for this position.
- Best Qualified Category – Meets the basic qualification requirements for the vacancy announcement and has successful experience in the same or similar job that has demonstrated “outstanding” proficiency in applying knowledge, skills and ability in the critical competencies for this position to work of increased levels of difficulty and complexity.

You should be aware that your ratings are subject to evaluation and verification. If a determination is made that you have rated yourself higher than is supported by your resume, you will be assigned a rating commensurate to your described experience. Providing false information may be grounds for not selecting you or termination after appointment.

VETERANS PREFERENCE: Application of Veterans’ Preference: the Category Rating Method does not add veterans’ preference points or apply the rule of three, but protects the rights of veterans by placing them ahead of non-preference eligibles within each category. Preference eligibles who do not have a service-connected disability of 10 percent or more will be assigned to the appropriate quality category based upon the job-related assessment and will be listed ahead of non-preference eligibles within the appropriate quality category.

DIRECTIONS FOR COMPLETING KSA STATEMENTS: Consider what in your education and experience background best reflects your possession of each knowledge, skills, and ability (KSA).

For each KSA, provide a clear, concise statement demonstrating your possession of the KSA as it relates to the position for which you are applying. Your statements should illustrate the degree to which your background has equipped you with each KSA, reflecting the scope and depth of your knowledge, skills, or ability and your level of responsibility. You may refer to paid or volunteer work, education or training, or any other applicable experience.

KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS, AND ABILITY FACTORS: Relative numerical values equate to a total of 30 points.

1. Demonstrated experience in international radio production and programming techniques and practices, with demonstrated skill in applying these to produce a wide variety of actuality recordings and feeds. (7) MANDATORY.
2. Broad and current knowledge of the target area, as well as general knowledge of world affairs, with demonstrated skill in applying such knowledge to the selection and production of taped actuality for the Dalet system. (7)
3. Demonstrated skill in using recording and editing systems. (6)
4. Knowledge of radio broadcasting principles, practices and methods. (5)
5. Ability to work as a team member with a variety of professional broadcasters. (5)

The submission of statements addressing the Knowledge, Skills, and Abilities (KSAs) listed above is highly encouraged so as to assure that your relevant experience for the position for which you are applying is clearly articulated and geared towards each KSA element. KSA statements should be clear, concise examples of your experience that show the depth of your knowledge, level of skill or the degree of your ability related to the individual KSA elements.

If you do not submit KSA statements, your relevant experience will be gleaned from the information affected in your application or resume only in order to evaluate your credentials against the KSAs. Please note however, that failure to submit KSA statements may result in lower scores being assigned during the evaluation process, in comparison with other candidates who submit targeted KSA statements.
