This is Chuck Turlinski, CEO of The Limited, with a few words about making a difference.

I've focused a lot of my energy on the business world, and being successful in business is an accomplishment. But for me personally, there's nothing like the sense of purpose I get from helping others.

Each year, our employees devote thousands of hours to volunteer efforts. We tutor at-risk youth, adopt families during the holiday season, and raise funds to cure breast cancer. We get so much satisfaction from seeing the change that results when a small group of people come together to make the community better.

Volunteering is as simple as choosing something you care about – the arts, the environment, our youth – and then giving whatever you have to offer.

Do something for the greater good. Go to volunteer.gov today and choose how you will make a difference.

PRESIDENT'S TAG: This is President George W. Bush. USA Freedom Corps has a volunteer opportunity that's just right for you. Visit volunteer.gov. When you help your neighbor, you help your nation.
