

Department of Veterans Affairs

NATIONAL CEMETERY ADMINISTRATION

ARLEEN VINCENTY
DIRECTOR
JACKSONVILLE VA NATIONAL CEMETERY
JACKSONVILLE, FLORIDA

Arleen Vincenty was named the first director of the new Jacksonville VA National Cemetery in Jacksonville, Fla., on Jan. 20, 2008. As director, she is responsible for all burial, maintenance and administrative operations at the cemetery.

Prior to her appointment, Mrs. Vincenty was the director of the Puerto Rico National Cemetery from Nov. 12, 2006 and assistant director at Puerto Rico from July 2005. Mrs. Vincenty has also held the position of cemetery director at Salisbury National Cemetery Complex in North Carolina, including its four satellite cemeteries; at Natchez, Miss.; Fayetteville, Ark.; and as a cemetery representative leader at the Puerto Rico National Cemetery.

For approximately 10 years before joining the National Cemetery Administration, Mrs. Vincenty held various positions in the Veterans Administration West Side Medical Center in Chicago, Ill., where she worked with minor contracts, maintenance contracts and budget and was the Hispanic Employment Program Assistant Manager. She was also assigned to the San Juan VA Medical Center where she worked with administrative processes, purchases and budget in the Nuclear Medicine Service.

Mrs. Vincenty began her federal career with the Federal Aviation Administration in the Air Traffic Division in 1984.

Mrs. Vincenty is a native of Chicago, Ill. She graduated from the Interamerican University of Puerto Rico, where she received her Bachelor of Arts degree in 2000.