

DURATION AND TERMINATION OF LICENSE	A license is issued for one year and must be renewed annually. Under certain circumstances, a license may become invalid. [2.5(a), 2.12]
Duration	A license shall be valid and effective unless: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• license has been revoked or suspended• license has expired or been terminated (see below)• licensee has failed to pay the annual license fee• license is voluntarily terminated upon written request of the licensee. NOTE: The Voluntary Cancellation of License/Registration sheet may be used (see page 3.8.3). Fees paid will not be refunded if a license is terminated prior to its expiration date.
Termination	A license will be terminated on the anniversary date, if the licensee fails to: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• submit the Application for License - Renewal (APHIS Form 7003), and• pay the required license fees A license may be terminated during the renewal process or at any other time for any reason that an initial license application may be denied as detailed in Section 2.11 of the regulations after a hearing in accordance with the applicable rules of practice. (See page 3.5.4) [2.12] If a license has been terminated, the licensee must: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• apply for a new license, and• meet all requirements for a new license Licenses are issued to a specific person(s) for a specific premise(s) and do not transfer upon change of ownership and/or location. A license which is no longer valid must be surrendered to the appropriate Regional Office. If the license certificate cannot be found, the licensee must provide a written statement so stating to the AC Regional Director.

DURATION OF A REGISTRATION

A registration is issued for three years and must be updated triennially. [2.30(a)]

A registration shall be valid and effective unless it is:

- not updated by completion and filing of a new registration form prior to the anniversary/renewal date
- voluntarily terminated upon written request of the registrant

Note: The Voluntary Cancellation of License/Registration sheet may be used (see page 3.8.3).

If a registration has been terminated, the exhibitor must apply for a new registration in order to conduct regulated activities.
