

Scotsman Ice Systems supports the proposed Energy Star program for commercial ice machines. We would prefer to see the effectivity of the specifications / program initiate on 1/1/08 to coincide with the many state standards that will go into effect at that time. Due to the pending state standards, more machines will meet the requirements by that point in time. We also support announcement of this program at the upcoming NAFEM show.

Matt Allison
Vice President of Engineering
Scotsman Ice Systems