

SCOTT S. HASHIMOTO
Century Square
1188 Bishop Street, Suite 2801
Honolulu, Hawai'i 96813
Telephone: (808) 550 - 4776 --Office
(808) 429 - 4432 --Cellular
(808) 550 - 4766 -- Fax

Education and Licensure

Doctor of Psychology (Psy.D.), American School of Professional Psychology - Hawai'i Campus
nka Argosy University (APA), Honolulu, Hawai'i, 1999. Distinguished Student Award for Community Service. Dissertation title: "A Theoretical Framework for Training and Supervision of Paraprofessionals: The Therapeutic Aide."
Hawai'i Licensed Clinical Psychologist # 748

Juris Doctor (J.D.), California Western School of Law (ABA, AALS), San Diego, California, 1982. Hawai'i Licensed Attorney # 3315

Bachelor of Arts in Sociology, University of Hawai'i at Manoa, Honolulu, Hawai'i, 1979.

High School Diploma, Hilo High School, Hilo, Hawai'i, 1975.

Work Experience and Training

Clinical Psychologist, private practice, Honolulu, Hawai'i, July 2002 to present.

*Providing comprehensive psychological services, including assessment and therapy (youth, adult, family and couple), and clinical/forensic consultation. Also providing mediation and organizational consultation services.

Clinical Psychologist, State of Hawai'i, Department of Health, Child and Adolescent Mental Health Division, Kaneohe, Hawai'i, July 2002 to present. Supervisor: Patricia Harnish, Ph.D., Branch Chief, Windward Oahu Family Guidance Center.

*Providing clinical consultation and training to Department of Health's mental health care coordination staff and administrative/management team within the context of servicing eligible youths and their families in accordance with the requirements of the Felix Consent Decree. The area of focus is on the development of comprehensive service plans together with the implementation of an evidence based/best practice approach. Diagnostic assessment and therapeutic interventions for the child, family and organizational systems are also provided. As part of the management/utilization review team at the Windward Oahu Family Guidance Center, also assisting in the development and implementation of administrative and clinical policies to support and enhance the services of care coordination, interagency collaboration and strategic planning.

Adjunct Faculty, Argosy University at Honolulu, Hawai'i, 2002 to present. As a Clinical Practicum Supervisor, is providing clinical supervision for diagnostic and therapy practicum doctoral students.

Certified Mediator (volunteer), The Mediation Center of the Pacific, Inc., Honolulu, Hawai'i, 1993 to 1995, and 2002 to present.

*As a senior mediator, is providing mediation services in dispute resolution, including marital dissolution, labor/employment, small claims, and juvenile property damage.

Consultant/Trainer, Research Corporation of the University of Hawai'i at Manoa, Honolulu, Hawai'i, October 2000 to June 2002. Supervisors: Patricia Harnish, Ph.D., Branch Chief, Windward Oahu Family Guidance Center, and Kate Pahinui, Clinical Supervisor, Felix Mentor Initiative.

*Provided consultation, training and mentoring to Department of Health's mental health care coordination staff and administrative/management team. This was within the context of serving eligible youths and their families in accordance with the requirements of the Felix Consent Decree. Training aspect included development of training materials and presentation to state wide audiences. Areas of focus included: engagement skills, case management, dispute resolution, mental health assessment, therapeutic interventions, and coordinated service planning. In addition, provided some cross training to the Departments of Education and Human Services. Clinical consultation and interventions included diagnostic assessment and therapy for the child, family and organizational systems. As part of the management/utilization review team, also assisted in the development and implementation of administrative and clinical policies to support and enhance the services of care coordination, interagency collaboration and strategic planning.

Clinical Psychologist, State of Hawai'i, Department of Health, Child and Adolescent Mental Health Division, Kaneohe, Hawai'i, December 1999 to September 2000. Supervising Psychologist: Jared Yurow, Psy.D.

*As Clinical Director of the Adolescent Day Treatment Program at Kaneohe, responsibilities included providing and ensuring that appropriate mental health services, such as, therapy (individual, family and group), psychological assessments and the required documents related thereto, were administered to eligible youths and their families in accordance with the requirements of the Felix Consent Decree. In addition, provided clinical consultation, training, and supervision of staff members (Mental Health Supervisors, Social Workers, Care Coordinators, Recreational Therapist, Licensed Practical Nurse, and Student Interns). Also, mentored staff in the development of Coordinated Service Plans, Mental Health Treatment Plans and Individualized Education Program plans.

Care Coordinator, State of Hawai'i, Department of Health, Child and Adolescent Mental Health Division, Kailua, Hawai'i, September to December 1999. Supervising Psychologist: Jared Yurow, Psy.D. Mental Health Supervisor: Mary Keefe, MSW.

*Provided care coordination and planning for mental health treatment services under the Felix Consent Decree. This involved the development and monitoring of various required documents and participation in Individualized Education Program plans, Coordinated Service Plans, Mental Health Treatment Plans and service testing. Also, provided therapy and generated psychological assessments for eligible youths and their families.

Internship, Hawai'i Counseling and Education Center, Inc., Kailua, Hawai'i, September 1998 to August 1999. Supervising Psychologist: Rita Shuford, Ph.D.

*Provided diagnostic assessments with psychological evaluation reports, consultation and therapy for children/adolescents and their families (individual, group, and day treatment programs) under the Felix Consent Decree contract for services.

Therapy Practicum Extern, Windward Adult Community Mental Health Center, Kaneohe, Hawai'i, September 1997 to June 1998. Supervising Psychologist: Rick Armsby, Ph.D.

*Provided individual and group therapy for the severely mentally ill and dual diagnosis (together with substance abuse/dependency) adult population. Also, conducted intake assessments and case management.

Diagnostic Practicum Extern, Department of Public Safety (Sex Offender Treatment Program), Halawa Correctional Facility, Honolulu, Hawai'i, September 1996 to June 1997.

Supervising Psychologist: Barry Coyne, Ph.D.

*Provided psychological testing, diagnostic assessment and generated psychological reports for adult sex offenders. Also provided individual and group therapy for this population.

Diagnostic Assessor, with Bobbi Carlson, Psy.D., for the Department of Public Safety (Sex Offender Treatment Program), Honolulu, Hawai'i, June to December 1997.

*Provided psychological testing, diagnostic assessment and generated psychological reports for adult sex offenders.

Therapeutic Aide, Parents and Children Together (PACT), Honolulu, Hawai'i, January 1996 to June 1998. Supervisor: Timena Brown, MSCP.

*Provided individual (children and adolescents) wrap-around care and multi-disciplinary team treatment planning involving Felix Consent Decree clientele.

Attorney, Fujiyama, Duffy & Fujiyama, Honolulu, Hawai'i, September 1985 to December 1994.

*Provided legal services in Civil, Commercial and Criminal law litigation, Trust, Wills, Family law and Employment law. Services included, among others, legal research and writing, drafting of legal documents, discovery of evidence, court appearances, and interactions with clients and witnesses. Represented claimants and defense positions. Notable clientele included: Island Insurance Company, Tradewind Insurance Company, Pacific Insurance Company, Fireman's Fund Insurance Company, Hawaii Government Employees Association (HGEA) and the State of Hawaii Organization of Police Officers (SHOPO).

Arbitrator, Hawai'i State Judiciary, State Court Annexed Arbitration Program, Honolulu, Hawai'i, 1990 to 1994.

*Provided arbitration services for the state courts in civil law disputes.

Law Clerk, Judges Ernest Kubota, Edwin Honda and Philip Chun, Circuit Courts of the State of Hawai'i, 1983 to 1985.

*Assisted the judges in research and evaluation of legal issues, drafting and reviewing of court documents, and in the maintenance of courtroom decorum and process.

Organizational Membership

American Psychological Association (2002 to present)

Hawai'i Bar Association (1983 to present)

Hawai'i Psychological Association (present)

Mediation Center of the Pacific (1993 to present)

Waiakea Pirates Athletic Club-Hilo, Hawai'i (1970 to present)

Interests and Recreation

Family, Golf, Softball, Jogging, Judo (Black Belt)

Personal

Married to K. Beth Yano, with four children