Michael Anthony Marr graduated from the University of Washington, Phi Beta Kappa, Magna Cum Laude, with distinction in political science, in June of 1975. While attending the University of San Francisco Law School, he was the recipient of a Marian Davis Foundation Scholarship and a University of San Francisco Law School Scholarship. He graduated in May of 1978.

Michael was licensed to practice law in the State of Washington in June of 1979 and in the State of Hawaii in May of 1980. He has also been admitted to practice law before the United States District Court of Western Washington, the United States District Court of Hawaii, the United States Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals, and the Supreme Court of the United States.

Although Michael has placed special emphasis in the area of arbitration and mediation, over the course of his legal career, he has maintained a general law practice while accepting select cases in the areas of family law, commercial law, banking law, personal injury law, real estate law and labor relations and employment law. He has also provided substantial pro bono assistance to indigent persons in the areas of welfare law, immigration law, criminal law, and constitutional law. While maintaining his private law practice, Michael has served as special counsel to the State of Hawaii Crime Commission, as independent grand jury counsel to the Circuit Court of the First Circuit, as a trustee to the United States Bankruptcy Court of Hawaii, and as a law instructor to the University of Hawaii, West Oahu College. Michael is also a member of the American Bar Association's Dispute Resolution Division, a member of the Honolulu Board of Realtors, has been the principal broker of Marr Realty since 1990, and has served as outside counsel to the Bank of Hawaii since 1984.

Michael has been selected to act as an arbitrator in numerous labor and employment disputes between various government entities and unions, including the State of Hawaii, the City and County of Honolulu, the County of Maui, the Hawaii Government Employees Association, and the United Public Workers. He has also served as a mediator and guardian ad litem in a multitude of family law matters relating to property division, family support, and child custody and visitation, and as an arbitrator, mediator, decision maker, and fact finder in a substantial number of controversies involving business transactions, commercial claims, contract disagreements, assumpsit claims, real estate disputes, property damage and indemnification claims, personal injury matters, and banking law issues.

Michael is available to act as an arbitrator, mediator, fact finder, commissioner, receiver, and special master. His reputation for integrity, civility, empathy, patience, and intelligence make him an excellent choice. His fee schedule is available upon request.
