

Food and Drug Administration Fact Sheet – South Dakota

FDA Presence: 2 FDA employee in South Dakota

Resident Post: Sioux Falls

reports to: Minneapolis District, Minneapolis, Minnesota

reports to: Central Region, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

Industry Presence in State

There are 931 FDA-regulated establishments in the State of South Dakota

(Some firms are in more than one category)

Animal drug and feed establishments - 44 percent

Food establishments (includes cosmetics) - 40 percent

Medical device and Radiological establishments - 9 percent

Human drug establishments - 5 percent

Biologic establishments (includes blood banks) - 2 percent

Imports

- There is one active port of entry in the State of South Dakota.
- FDA regulated import entries are primarily food, food additives, cardiovascular and radiological devices.
- The SD FDA regulated import entries are handled out of the Minneapolis District FDA office.

Industry Highlights

- Agriculture: Ranks second in the production of sunflowers and proso millet.
- Other key crops/products include durum wheat, spring wheat, corn, sorghum, soybeans, flaxseed, oats, and honey.
- Cattle and sheep ranching are also a significant parts of the State's economy.

Contracts

South Dakota Department of Agriculture

- Conduct GMP inspections of licensed feed mills, and BSE inspections of licensed and unlicensed feed facilities.
- Conduct follow up investigations of first time violators of tissue residues in food animals.

South Dakota Department of Environment and Health

- Conduct inspections of mammography facilities.