TREASURY OFFERS 13-WEEK, 26-WEEK, AND 52-WEEK BILLS

The Treasury will auction three series of Treasury bills totaling approximately $24,000 million to refund $25,457 million of publicly held securities maturing September 16, 1999, and to pay down about $1,457 million.

In addition to the public holdings, Federal Reserve Banks for their own accounts hold $12,714 million of the maturing bills, which may be refunded at the highest discount rate of accepted competitive tenders. Amounts issued to these accounts will be in addition to the offering amount.

The maturing bills held by the public include $4,859 million held by Federal Reserve Banks as agents for foreign and international monetary authorities. Up to $3,000 million of these securities may be refunded within the offering amount in each of the auctions of 13- and 26-week bills at the highest discount rate of accepted competitive tenders. Additional amounts may be issued in each auction for such accounts to the extent that the amount of new bids exceeds $3,000 million.

Of the $4,859 million maturing bills held by foreign and international monetary authorities, $1,733 million is considered to be held in the original 52-week issue; additional amounts may be issued in the 52-week bill auction for such accounts to the extent that the amount of new bids exceeds that amount.

TreasuryDirect customers requested that we reinvest their maturing holdings of approximately $950 million into the 13-week bill, $755 million into the 26-week bill, and $515 million into the 52-week bill.

This offering of Treasury securities is governed by the terms and conditions set forth in the Uniform Offering Circular for the Sale and Issue of Marketable Book-Entry Treasury Bills, Notes, and Bonds (31 CFR Part 356, as amended).

Details about each of the new securities are given in the attached offering highlights.
