Details: A Lodi man wanted in connection with a road-rage related shooting turned himself in at the Lodi Police Department last night.

Ruben Joseph Quinones arrived at the LPD front lobby at about 7:25 PM, in the company of family members and his attorney. He was taken into custody without incident and was booked into Lodi City Jail. He is currently being held without bail on charges of assault with a deadly weapon, and attempted murder. Quinones is expected to be arraigned in Lodi Municipal Court on Friday morning.

Quinones is believed to have shot 22 year old Carl Bayne of Lodi on February 5th, as Bayne sat in his car waiting for a traffic light at Kettleman and Ham. He fled the scene in his own car, but the license plate number was reported by a witness and led to his identification. The incident was believed to be related to an argument that occurred a few minutes before near Walmart.
