NEWS RELEASE FROM THE CITY OF LODI

July 24, 2006

Community Cooling Center Established at Hutchins Street Square

Due to record setting temperatures and the threat to public health, the City of Lodi has established Hutchins Street Square, 125 South Hutchins Street as a "Community Cooling Center".

Senior Citizens are encouraged to visit the Senior Center at Hutchins Street Square. The site is air conditioned and designed for seniors. It is open and available on a regular basis to address a variety of Senior Citizens needs including to serve as a respite during this time of very high temperatures.

All other members of the Lodi community are encouraged to visit the Cottage or Pisano Rooms at Hutchins Street Square. These rooms will be air conditioned and games and reading material will be made available. The room will be available until 8:30 tonight and tomorrow, July 25, 2006 at 8:30 a.m.

Free transportation to Hutchins Street Square will be provided by Lodi Dial-A-Ride (333-6806) as long as it is open as a Community Cooling Center. Grape Line Bus Route 3 serves Hutchins Street Square.
