STANDING ORDER NO. 4

COSTS SOUGHT FOR FAXES, COPYING AND COMPUTER RESEARCH

---

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT requests for reimbursement of the following items of expense pursuant to 11 U.S.C. Section 330(a)(1)(B) will be treated as follows:

1. Costs associated with facsimile transmissions shall be considered overhead included in billing rates absent proof of an actual expense attributable to the particular case in which the request is made.

2. Reimbursement of costs associated with photocopying shall be limited to 10 cents per page absent proof of actual expense in a greater amount.

3. Any cost related to use of computer for legal research shall be considered overhead included in billing rates absent proof of an actual expense attributable to the particular case in which the request is made. This does not limit requests for compensation for time required of counsel to do the research.
