

SURF Summer Seminar Series

Open to all NIST Staff

June

Thursdays

Summer Undergraduate Research Fellowship

	2 SI-Traceable small force measurement at NIST - Gordon Shaw, MEL	Green Auditorium 10:30 am
	9 Microfluidic devices for forensic DNA analysis: microfluidics, electrophoresis and optics - Wyatt Vreeland, CSTL	Red Auditorium 10:30 am
	23 Usability and security of voting systems - Sharon Laskowski & John Wack, ITL	Green Auditorium 10:30 am
	30 The future of electronics: Moores law, functional and ubiquitous electronics - Eric Vogel, EEEL	Employees' Lounge 10:30 am

July

	7 Radiation accidents: How bones and teeth are used to measure human exposures - Marc Desrosiers, PL	Green Auditorium 10:30 am
	14 Protecting buildings from ChemBio agents - Andy Persily, BFRL	Red Auditorium 10:30 am
	21 Aspects of the World Trade Center disaster - Frank Gayle, MSEL	Green Auditorium 10:30 am

If you would benefit from special assistance, such as a sign interpreter, please contact Anita Sweigert, x4200, anita.sweigert@nist.gov at least one week before the scheduled seminar.