Ann Jaedicke Deputy Comptroller for Compliance Policy

Ann F. Jaedicke has served as Deputy Comptroller for Compliance Policy since December 2003.

As Deputy Comptroller for Compliance Policy, she is responsible for OCC policy and examination procedures relating to consumer issues and anti-money laundering.

She is a member of the Federal Financial Institution Examination Council's (FFIEC) Consumer Compliance task force and the FFIEC's Bank Secrecy Act task force. These task forces of U.S. regulators promote policy coordination and the uniform enforcement of laws and regulations. Ms. Jaedicke also sits on OCC's Enforcement Committee and its National Risk Committee.

Ms. Jaedicke began her career in 1977 as a bank examiner in Texas. From 1984 to 1986, Ms. Jaedicke worked in OCC's London office where she examined branches of U.S. banks. Later she served as the director for OCC's Large Bank Division. In 1997, Ms. Jaedicke was promoted to deputy comptroller for Supervision Operations where she managed, among other things, OCC's problem bank division. In 2001 and 2002, Ms. Jaedicke led projects to restructure OCC's six districts and OCC's Washington D.C. headquarters.

Ms. Jaedicke is a native Texan and a graduate of Texas A&M University.
