

Jennifer C. Kelly
Senior Deputy Comptroller for Mid-Size/Community Bank Supervision

Jennifer C. Kelly is the Senior Deputy Comptroller for Mid-Size/Community Bank Supervision at the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (OCC).

Ms. Kelly is responsible for the OCC's Mid-Size/Community Bank program, supervising nearly than 1,700 banks, federal branches and agencies and 1,500 employees. She serves as a member of the OCC's Executive Committee and the Committee on Bank Supervision. Ms. Kelly assumed these duties in April 2008.

Previously, Ms. Kelly served as Deputy Comptroller for Mid-size and Credit Card Bank Supervision, where she was responsible for supervision and oversight of the OCC's Mid-size and Credit Card Bank Supervision programs. Prior to that, Ms. Kelly served as the Deputy Comptroller for Continuing Education, with responsibility for the training and development of the OCC's examining staff.

Ms. Kelly joined the OCC in 1979 as an assistant national bank examiner in San Francisco and was commissioned as a national bank examiner in 1983. She has a broad supervision background, including extensive experience in problem bank supervision and policy development, as well as a year-long assignment to the Bank of England's bank supervision department.

Ms. Kelly is a native of Glens Falls, New York. She holds a bachelor's of arts degree in Economics from Mount Holyoke College in South Hadley, Massachusetts.

