Web-Base Acquisition Knowledge Management Subscription Services
RFQ #:   RFQ197881
Period of Performance: 05/01/07 thru 04/30/08
Closing Date & Time: Friday, April 6, 2007 at 1:00 pm

The National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) requires web-based acquisition knowledge management subscription (1 year). Limited not to exceed 4 inquiries per year; up to 10 passwords, which includes: acquisition helpdesk on-call research support; 4 hour level-of-effort each. Best practice publications: monthly updates, periodic best practices and/or special reports. Annual conference and quarterly user group sessions. Robust library of acquisition information, including best practice reports, regulations, policies, guidance, protests, legislation, and etc. Concise daily summarize of what is new in acquisition delivered to each desktop via email each day with search capability. Continuously updated database of recognition and awards programs for acquisition officials, teams, and programs. Database of government-wide contracts available for agencies to order from GWACs and MASs. Database of franchise funds and working capital funds available for government wide use. Calendar of acquisition community events. Acquisition toolkit with checklists appropriate acquisition strategy. Seven (7) steps guide with samples and examples of best-in-clas PBA documents. Knowledge management tool for using the FSS Schedules.