Public, No. 23.

N. N.

Congress of the United States,

At the First Session

BEGUN AND HELD AT THE CITY OF WASHINGTON

In the District of Columbia

on Monday the fifth day of December one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three.

AN ACT To organize the Territories of Nebraska and Kansas.

Be it Enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America at Congress assembled,

That all that part of the Territory of the United States included within the following limits, except such portions thereof as are herein-after expressly exempted from the operations of this act, to-wit: beginning at a point in the Missouri river where the fortieth parallel of north latitude crosses the same; thence west on said parallel to the east boundary of the Territory of Utah, on the summit of the Rocky Mountains; thence on said summit northward to the forty-ninth parallel of north latitude; thence east on said parallel to the western boundary of the Territory of Minnesota; thence southward on said boundary to the Missouri river; thence down the main channel of said river to the place of beginning, be, and the same is hereby created into a temporary government by the name of the Territory of Nebraska; and when admitted as a State or States, the said Territory, or any portion of the same, shall be received into the Union with or without slavery, as their constitution may prescribe at the time of their admission: Provided, That nothing in this act contained shall be construed to inhibit the government of the United States from dividing said Territory into two or more Territories, in such manner and at such times as Congress shall deem convenient and proper, or from attaching any portion of said Territory to any other State or Territory of the United States: Provided further, That nothing in this act contained shall be construed to impair the rights of person or property now pertaining
