DOE TO PRESENT NATIONAL SAFETY AWARD AT HANFORD

On Tuesday, May 29, the U.S. Department of Energy's Assistant Secretary for Environmental Management, James Rispoli, will present a national safety award to Fluor Hanford's Soil & Groundwater Remediation Project at the Hanford Site in southeastern Washington State.

The ceremony will take place at 9:30 a.m., near the Columbia River and Hanford's 300 Area. Following the ceremony, Hanford workers will be available for interviews.

DOE and Fluor will provide transportation to and from the ceremony. Media should meet at the Federal Building, 825 Jadwin Avenue, Richland, at 9:00 a.m. For security purposes, attendees must register in advance, providing the following information no later than 4 p.m. May 25th to Geoff Tyree, Fluor Hanford, by e-mail or phone (Geoffrey_t_tyree@rl.gov or (509) 372-1145).

- Full name exactly as it appears on photo ID (driver's license)
- Social Security Number, date of birth, place of birth (city, state)
- Confirm U.S. Citizen
- Name, address, and phone number of media organization

The event is scheduled to conclude by 10:15 a.m.
