DOE SCHEDULES PUBLIC MEETING ON HANFORD'S CULTURAL AND HISTORIC RESOURCES

The U.S. Department of Energy will hold a public meeting to discuss Hanford's Cultural and Historic Resources Program on Tuesday, November 19. The meeting will be held from 1 to 4 p.m. in room G-53 of the Federal Building located on 825 Jadwin in Richland, Washington. Badges are not required for entrance to that section of the Federal Building, but visitors must sign in at the front of the building and present photo identification.

Listed below are items for discussion at the meeting:

- A briefing on the historic preservation process
- Historical/cultural resources at Hanford
- Discussion of public opinion on the issue
- Question and answer session

"This meeting is an opportunity for citizens to express their views on how the Department should proceed with its legal obligation to protect Hanford's historic and cultural resources," said Dee Lloyd, Cultural Resources Program Manager.
