

Conservation on Private Land Benefits All Americans

Clear Air & Water

Productive Soil
for Abundant Food & Fiber

Enhanced Fish
& Wildlife Habitat

Farmers and ranchers conserve natural resources on private land that makes up more than 70% of the continental United States.

Their care of the land, with help from NRCS, provides agricultural and environmental benefits that Americans value.