

EN Resources

Where to Get Help: Participating in Ticket to Work

Exploratory: Considering becoming an Employment Network (EN)

CESSI will answer questions you have, walk you through the application process and help connect you to local organizations or potential partners if necessary.

Contact CESSI at 1-877-743-8237 (v/tty) or visit their website at www.CESSI.net/ttw

Application: Responding to the RFP

SSA's Employment Network Contract Team (ENCT) is available to answer questions about the EN Request for Proposals, walk you through the EN contract award process and help you complete your application.

Contact SSA ENCT: 1-866-584-5180 (v) 1-866-584-5181 (tty) encontracts@ssa.gov

To download the EN RFP, go to www.ssa.gov/work/enrfp.html.

Operational: Getting started, developing and implementing your business model, and accepting tickets

MAXIMUS offers a wide array of training and support services to help you get started and operate your Ticket to Work program.

Contact MAXIMUS at 1-866-968-7842 (v), 1-866-833-2967 (tty) or visit their website at www.yourtickettowork.org

CESSI facilitates community Work Incentive Seminars (WISE) and other outreach activities involving national and community partners to help connect beneficiaries with employment networks.

Contact CESSI at 1-877-743-8237 (v/tty) or visit their website at www.CESSI.net/ttw

Payment: Submitting claims

MAXIMUS can help you complete and submit your claims for EN payments.

Contact MAXIMUS at 1-866-968-7842 (v), 1-866-833-2967 (tty) or visit their website at www.yourtickettowork.org

Payment: Tracking claims

The SSA Help Desk is available to help you track claims through to payment.

Contact SSA Help Desk: 1-410-597-1577 (fax) EN.HelpDesk@ssa.gov

For more information about SSA's Ticket to Work Program, please visit www.ssa.gov/work.

