If your resume or curriculum vitae does not provide all the information requested in the job announcement, you may lose consideration for the position. Submit a copy of your personnel order.

Other Information:

Applications, resumes or other written application format must contain all of the information listed above in sufficient detail to enable the Human Resources Office to make a determination that you have the required qualifications for the position. If your application, resume or other written application format does not contain all the information and forms requested in the announcement, you may lose consideration for this job. This office will not contact you to request missing information. It is your responsibility to submit a completed application package as outlined in this vacancy announcement.

APPLICATIONS WITH REQUIRED FORMS MUST BE RECEIVED IN OUR OFFICE NO LATER THAN CLOSE OF BUSINESS. ON THE CLOSING DATE OF THE ANNOUNCEMENT. TELEFAXED/EMAILED DOCUMENTS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED. THERE WILL BE NO EXCEPTIONS.

Preference in filling vacancies is given to qualified Indian Preference candidates in accordance with the Indian Preference Act (Title 25, United States Code, Sections 472 and 473).

Applicants or current Federal employees claiming Indian Preference must indicate on their application packet, if they wish to be considered under the Merit Promotion Plan (MPP), the Excepted Service Examining Plan (ESEP), or both. If not, they will be considered under the MPP only.

Proof of U.S. Citizenship is required for an appointment to the Indian Health Service. The Director, IHS may grant an exception to this policy for appointments to excepted positions, provided that the current appropriations act permits IHS to pay citizens from the country where the applicant is from.

Additional selections may be made within 90 days from the date a Candidate Referral Roster is issued, if the position becomes vacant or to fill an identical additional position.

Employees, who received a buyout and subsequently return to positions in Federal agencies, whether by re-employment or contracts for personal services, are generally obligated to repay the full amount of the buyout to the agency that paid it.

If position is advertised at multiple grade levels, it can be filled at a lower grade than the full performance level. Advancement to the next grade without further competition is possible, once all legal and regulatory requirements are met; however, such advancement is neither automatic nor guaranteed.

The Tucson Area Indian Health Service provides reasonable accommodations to applicants with disabilities. If you need reasonable accommodation for any part of the application and hiring process, please notify the Human Resources Management Branch at (520) 295-2435. The decision on granting reasonable accommodation will be on a case-by-case basis.

The Department of Health and Human Services is an equal opportunity employer. The Department does not discriminate in employment decisions on the basis of race, color, religion, gender, national origin, age, disability or sexual orientation.

AREA INFORMATION: The Tucson Area encompasses the Pascua Yaqui (pah.skwah ya.ke) and Tohono O'odham (to.ho.no aah.tum) Indian Reservations. The Sells Service Unit (SSU) is the primary source of health care for the approximately 24,000 people of the Tohono O'odham Nation. The Sells Service Unit consists of an American Hospital Association affiliated JCAHO accredited hospital at Sells (65 miles west of Tucson) and three health centers - San Xavier Health Center located in Tucson; Santa Rosa Health Center located in Santa Rosa, and the San Simon Health Center (to open in September 2008) located in San Simon Village. The SSU also provides an environmental health program, which is responsible for construction and maintenance of sanitation facilities. The Sells Service Unit has a community focused health care delivery program and works in close association with the Tohono O'odham Tribal Health Committee and Tribal Health Department.

The San Simon Health Center includes departments and/or functions related to: fiscal management, property and supply, housekeeping, building and grounds, health records, mental health, pharmacy, dental services, optometry, business office, information technology, and health promotion/disease prevention.
