DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES¹

On March 5, 2008, the parties filed a stipulation, in which they agreed to settle this case and described the settlement terms. Petitioner alleged that she suffered from Transverse Myelitis (“TM”) following an influenza vaccination. Respondent denies that petitioner’s TM was caused in fact by her vaccination. Nonetheless, the parties agreed to resolve this matter informally.

The court hereby adopts the parties’ said stipulation and awards compensation in the amount and on the terms set forth therein. Pursuant to the stipulation, the court awards a lump sum of $213,724.32 in the form of a check made payable to petitioner.

¹ The undersigned intends to post this decision on the United States Court of Federal Claims’ website, in accordance with the E-Government Act of 2002, Pub. L. No. 107-347, 116 Stat. 2899, 2913 (Dec. 17, 2002). As provided by Vaccine Rule 18(b), each party has 14 days within which to request redaction “of any information furnished by that party (1) that is trade secret or commercial or financial information and is privileged or confidential or (2) that are medical files and similar files the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of privacy.” Vaccine Rule 18(b). Otherwise, “the entire” decision will be available to the public. Id. Petitioner so moved and the undersigned hereby grants petitioner’s motion.

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC Appendix B, the clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment herewith.²

IT IS SO ORDERED.
