Mr. Christopher Cox
Chairman
The Securities and Exchange Comm. (SEC)
100 F Street NE
Washington, DC 20549

Dear Chairman Cox:

Recently I read that the SEC is asking for comment on whether the filings by US Companies with the SEC should list any sales or transactions with terrorist states or nations. I believe there are 5 listed countries as terrorist states.

I believe all US Companies should list all sales and any transactions with these terrorist states. It is the right of all Americans to have this information. This for information and decision purposes but also so Companies and the American people can take measures to protect themselves legally, public relations, and good will wise.

Thank you.

Sincerely,
Nathan Evans
